O bless the Lord, my soul, His mercies bear in mind; Forget not all His benefits, Who is to Thee so kind.

He pardons all thy sins, Prolongs thy feeble breath:

He healeth thine infirmities, And ransoms thee from death.

He feeds thee with His love, Upholds thee with His truth; And, like the eagle's, he renews The vigor of Thy youth.

And, through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,

The music of the Gospel leads us home. Angels of Jesus, etc.

Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,

The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea,

And laden souls by thousands meekly stealing,

Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to thee

Angels of Jesus, etc.

Rest comes at length; though life be long and dreary,

The day must dawn, and darksome

We Plough the fields and Scatter.

WE plough the fields and scatter The good seed on the land, But it is fed and watered By God's almighty hand; He sends the snow in Winter, And soft refreshing rain.

He only is the Maker Of all things near and far: He lights the evening star; The winds and waves obey Him, By Him the birds are fed: Much more to us, His children, He gives our daily bread.

We thank Thee, then, O Father, For all things bright and good, The seed-time and the harvest, Our life, our health, our food. Accept the gifts we offer For all Thy love imparts, And, what Thou most desirest, Our humble, thankful hearts.

"If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father."-I JOHN ii, I.

Who loving lovest them to the end; That Thou wilt plead for me,

When, weary in the Christian race, Far off appears my resting place, And fainting, I mistrust Tny grace, Then, Saviour, plead for me.

And see no glummering guiding ray,

When Satan, by my sins made bold, Strives from Thy cross to loose my hold, Then with Thy pitying arms enfold, And plead, O plead for me.

And when my dying hour draws near, Then to my fainting s ght appear,

When the full light of heavenly day Say Thou hast wash'd them all away; O say Thou plead'st for me,

HYMN 392.

"To whom shall we go but unto Thee?"

Just as I am, -without one plea, But that Thy Blood was shed for me, And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee, O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am,—and waiting not To rid my soul of one dark blot, To Thee, Whose Blood can cleanse each spot O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, -though tossed about With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings and fears within, without,
O Lamb of God, I come. Just as I am,—poor, wretched, blind—Sight, riches, healing of the mind, Yea, all I need, in Thee to find, O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, -Thou wilt receive, Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve; Because Thy promise I believe, O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am,—Thy love unknown Has broken every barrier down; Now to be Thine, yea, Thine alone, O Lamb of God, I come.

HYMN 391.

"I will put thee in a clift of the rock."

Rock of ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in Thee; Let the water and the blood, From Thy riven side which flow'd, Be of sin the double cure, Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

Not the labours of my hands Can fulfil Thy law's demands; Could my zeal no respite know, Could my tears for ever flow, All for sin could not atone, Thou must save, and Thou alone. Nothing in my hand I bring; Simply to Thy Cross I cling; Naked, come to Thee for dress; Helpless, look to Thee for grace; Foul, I to the Fountain fly; Wash me, Saviour, or I die.

While I draw this fleeting breath, When my eyelids close in death, When I soar through tracts unknown, See Thee on Thy judgment throne, Rock of ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in Thee.

HYMN 443.

"I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not."

In the hour of trial, Jesus, plead for me; Lest by base denial I depart from Thee; When Thou see'st me waver, With a look recall, Nor for fear or favour Suffer me to fall.

With forbidden pleasures Would this vain world charm; Or its sordid treasures Spread to work me harm; Bring to my remembrance Sad Gethsemane, Or, in darker semblance, Cross-crown'd Calvary.

Should Thy mercy send me Sorrow, toil and woe; Or should pain attend me On my path below; Grant that I may never Fail Thy hand to see; Grant that I may ever Cast my care on Thee.

When my last hour cometh,
Fraught with strife and pain,
When my dust returneth
To the dust again; On Thy truth relying Through that mortal strife, Jesus, take me, dying,

HYMN 528.

" He that cometh to me shall never hunger, and he that believeth in me shall never thirst."

I heard the voice of Jesus say, "Come unto me and rest;

Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Thy head upon my breast:"

I came to Jesus as I was, Weary, and worn, and sad; I found in Him a resting-place, And He has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say, "Behold I freely give The living water, thirsty one, Stoop down, and drink, and live:" I came to Jesus, and I drank Of that life-giving stream: My thirst was quenched, my soul revived, And now I live in Him.

I heard the voice of Jesus say, "I am this dark world's Light; Look unto me, thy morn shall rise, And all thy day be bright: I look to Jesus, and I found In Him my Star, my Sun; And in that Light of life I'll walk Till traveling days are done.

" Lovest thou me?"

Hark! my soul, it is the Lord; 'Tis thy Saviour, hear His word; Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee-Say, poor sinner, lovest thou me?

I delivered thee when bound, And when wounded healed thy wound; Sought thee wandering, set thee right, Turned thy darkness into light.

Can a woman's tender care Cease toward the child she bare? Yes, she may forgetful be, Yet will I remember thee.

Mine is an unchanging love. Higher than the heights above, Deeper than the depths beneath, Free and faithful, strong as death.

Thou shalt see my glory soon, When the work of grace is done; Partner of my throne shalt be; Say, poor sinner, lovest thou me?

Lord, it is my chief complaint, That my love is weak and faint; Yet I love thee and adore; O for grace to love thee more!

Psalm xxvi. Judica me, Domine.

Be thou my Judge O Lord, for I have walked innocently: my trust hath been also in the Lord, therefore shall I not fall.

Examine me O Lord, and prove me: try out

my reins and my heart

For thy loving kindness is ever before mine eyes: and I will walk in thy truth.

I have not dwelt with vain persons: neither will I have fellowship with the deceitful.

I have hated the congregation of the wicked:

and will not sit among the ungodly.

I will wash my hands in innocency, O Lord: and so will I go to thine altar.

That I may show the voice of thanksgiving:

and tell of all thy wondrous works.

Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house: and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

O shut not up my soul with the sinners: ner my life with blood thirsty;
In whose hands is wickedness: and their right hand is full of gifts.
But as for me, I will walk innocently: O deliver me, and be merciful unto me.

My foot standeth right: I will praise the Lord in the congregations.

Psalm xliii. Judica me, Deus.

Give sentence with me O God, and defend my cause against the ungodly people: O deliver me from the deceitful and wicked man.

For thou art the God of my strength, why hast thou put me from thee: and why go I so heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me

O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

And that I may go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladness: and upon the harp will I give thanks unto thee, O God my God.

Why art thou so heavy, O my soul: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

O put thy trust in God: for I will yet give him thanks, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Psalm cxli. Domine, clamavi.

Lord I call upon thee; haste thee unto me: and consider my voice, when I cry unto thee. Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as the incense: and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

Set a watch O Lord, before my mouth: and keep the door of my lips.

O let not mine heart be inclined to any evil thing: let me not be occupied in ungodly works with the men that work wickedness, lest I eat of such things as please them.

Let the righteous rather smite me friendly: and reprove me.

But let not their precious balms break my head: yea, I will pray yet against their wicked-

Let their judges be overthrown in stony places: that they may hear my words; for they are sweet.

Our bones lie scattered before the pit: like as when one breaketh and heweth wood upon the earth.

But mine eyes look unto thee, O Lord God: in thee is my trust; O cast not out my soul.

Keep me from the snare that they have laid for me: and from the traps of the wicked doers.
Let the ungodly fall into their own nets together: and let me ever escape them.

HYMN 393.

" I flee unto thee to hide me."

Jesus, lover of my soul, Let me to Thy bosom fly While the nearer waters roll, While the tempest still is high; Hide me, O my Saviour hide, Till the storm of life be past; Safe into the haven guide, O receive my soul at last.

Other refuge have I none, Hangs my helpless soul on Thee; Leave, ah! leave me not alone, Still support and comfort me.

All my trust on Thee is stay'd; All my help from Thee I bring: Cover my defenceless head With the shadow of Thy wing.

Plenteous grace with Thee is found, Grace to cover all my sin; Let the healing streams abound, Make and keep me pure within: Thou of life the fountain art, Freely let me take of Thee; Spring Thou up within my heart, Rise to all eternity.

HYMN 394.

" Whom have I in heaven but Thee?"

Jesus, my Saviour! look on me. For I am weary and opprest; I come to cast myself on thee: Thou art my Kest.

Look down on me, for I am weak, . I feel the toilsome journey's length; Thine aid omnipotent I seek: Thou art my Strength.

I am bewilder'd on my way, Dark and tempestuous is the night; O send thou forth some cheering ray: Thou art my Light.

When Satan flings his fiery darts, I look to thee; my terrors cease; Thy cross a hiding-place imparts: Thou art my Peace.

Standing alone on Jordan's brink, In that tremendous latest strife, Thou wilt not suffer me to sink: Thou art my Life.

Thou wilt my every want supply, E'en to the end, whate'er befall; Through life, in death, eternally, Thou art my All.

HYMN 67.

" In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins."

Weary of earth, and laden with my sin, I look at heaven and long to enter in, But there no evil thing may find a home: And yet I hear a voice that bids me "Come."

So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand In the pure glory of that holy land? Before the whiteness of that throne appear? Yet there are hands stretch'd out to draw me near

The while I fain would tread the heavenly way, Evil is ever with me, day by day; Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall, 'Repent, confess thou shalt be loosed from all." It is the voice of Jesus that I hear, His are the hands stretch'd out to draw me near, And his the blood that can for all atone, And set me faultless there before the throne.

'Twas He who found me on the deathly wild And made me heir of heaven, the Father's child, And day by day, whereby my soul may live, Gives me His grace of pardon, and will give.

Yea, Thou wilt answer for me, righteous Lord: Thine all the merits, mine the great reward Thine the sharp thorns, and mine the golden Mine the life won, and Thine the life laid down.

SELECTION SIXTH.

Psalm xxxii. Reati, quorum. Blessed is he whose unrighteousness is forgiven: and whose sin is covered,

Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth no sin: and in whose spirit there is no guile.

For whilst I held my tongue: my hones consumed away through my daily complaining.

For thy hand is heavy upon me day and night: and my moisture is like the drought in summer.

I will acknowledge my sin unto thee: and mine unrighteousness have I not hid.

I said, I will confess my sins unto the Lord:

and so thou forgavest the wickedness of my sin.

For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee, in a time when thou mayest be found: but in the great water-floods

they shall not come nigh him.

Thou art a place to hide me in; thou shalt preserve me from trouble: thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

I will inform thee, and teach thee in the way wherein thou shalt go: and I will guide thee with mine eye.

Be ye not like to horse and mule which have no understanding: whose mouths must be held with bit and bridle, lest they fall upon thee.

Great plagues remain for the ungodly: but whose putteth his trust in the Lord, mercy embraceth him on every side.

Be glad O ye righteous, and rejoice in the Lord: and be joyful all ye that are true of heart.

Psalm cxxx. De profundus.

Out of the deep have I called unto thee O

Lord: Lord hear my voice.
O let thine ears consider well: the voice of of my complaint.

If thou Lord wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss; O Lord, who may abide it?

For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared.

I look for the Lord; my soul doth wait for him: in his word is my trust.

My soul fleeth unto the Lord: before the morning watch; Isay, before the morning watch. O Israel trust in the Lord; for with the Lord there is mercy; and with him is plenteous redemption.

And he shall redeem Israel: from all his sins

Psalm exxi. Levavi oculos meos.

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help. My help cometh even from the Lord: who hath made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: and he that keepeth thee will not sleep. Behold, he that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord himself is thy keeper: the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand.;
So that the sun shall not burn thee by day:

neither the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in: from this time forth for evermore.

"Whom resist, steadfast in the faith."

Christian! dost thou see them On the holy ground, How the powers of darkness Rage thy steps around? Christian! up and smite them, Counting gain but loss; In the strength that cometh By the holy cross.

Christian! dost thou feel them, How they work within, Striving, tempting, luring, Goading into sin? Christian! never tremble; Never be down-cast; Gird thee for the battle, Watch and pray and fast.

Christian! dost thou hear them, How they speak thee fair? "Always fast and vigil?
Always watch and prayer?"
Christian! answer boldly: "While I breathe I pray!"
Peace shall follow battle, Night shall end in day.

"Well I know thy trouble, O my servant true; Thou art very weary,
I was weary too;
But that toil shall make thee Some day all mine own, And the end of sorrow Shall be near my throne."

HYMN 386.

" If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father."

O Thou that hear'st when sinners cry, Though all my crimes before Thee lie, Behold them not with angry look, But blot their memory from Thy book.

Create my nature pure within, And form my soul averse to sin: Let thy good Spirit ne'er depart, Nor hide Thy presence from my heart.

I cannot live without Thy light, Cast out and banish'd from Thy sight:

Thy holy joys, my God, restore, And guard me that I fall no more.

A broken heart, my God, my King, Is all the sacrifice I bring; The God of grace will ne er despise A broken heart for sacrifice.

O may Thy love inspire my tongue! Salvation shall be all my song: And all my powers shall join to bless The Lord, my strength and righteousness.

HYMN 10.

" Behold, I stand at the door and knock."

O Jesus, thou art standing Outside the fast-closed door, In lewly patience waiting To pass the threshold o'er: We bear the name of Christians, His name and sign we bear: O shame, thrice shame upon us, To keep him standing there.

O Jesus, thou art knocking: And lo! that hand is scarr'd, And thorns thy brow encircle, And tears thy face have marr'd:

O love that passeth knowledge, So patiently to wait! O sin that hath no equal, So fast to bar the gate!

O Jesus, thou art pleading In accents meek and low, I died for you, my children, And will ye treat me so? O Lord, with shame and sorrow We open now the door: Dear Saviour, enter, enter, And leave us nevermore.

Behold, I was shapen in wickedness: and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts: and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow

Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness: that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Turn thy face from my sins: and put out all my misdeeds.

Make me a clean heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

O give me the comfort of thy help again: and stablish me with thy free Spirit.

Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked: and sinners shall be converted unto thee

Deliver me from blood-guiltiness O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.

Thou shalt open my lips O Lord: and my

Psalm xlii. Quemadmodum.

Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks: so longeth my soul after thee O God.

My soul is athirst for God, yea even for the living God: when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

My tears have been my meat day and night: while they daily say unto me, Where is now

Now when I think thereupon, I pour out my heart by myself: for I went with the multitude, and brought them forth into the house of God.

In the voice of praise and thanksgiving:

among such as keep holy day.

Why art thou so full of heaviness, O my soul? and why art thou so disquieted within me?

Put thy trust in God: for I will yet give him thanks for the help of his countenance.

My God, my soul is vexed within me: therefore will I remember thee concerning the land of Jordan and the little hill of Hermon.

One deep calleth another, because of the noise of the water pipes: all thy waves and storms are gone over me.

The Lord hath granted his loving-kindness in the day-time: and in the night-season did I sing of him, and made my prayer unto the God

I will say unto the God of my strength, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I thus heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me?

My bones are smitten asunder as with a sword: while mine enemies that trouble me cast me in the teeth;

Namely, while they say daily unto me: Where is now thy God?

Why art thou so vexed, O my soul? and why art thou so disquieted within me? O put thy trust in God: for I will yet thank him, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

HYMN 245.

"O Lord God of hosts, blessed is the man that putteth his trust in thee."

O God of hosts, the mighty Lord, How lovely is the place Where thou, enthroned in glory, show'st The brightness of thy face!

My longing soul faints with desire To view thy blest abode; My panting heart and flesh cry out For thee, the living God.

Thrice happy they whose choice has thee Their sure protection made, Who long to tread the sacred ways That to thy dwelling lead.

Thus they proceed from strength to strength, And still approach more near; Till all on Sion's holy mount Before their God appear.

For God, who is our sun and shield, Will grace and glory give; And no good thing will be withhold From them that justly live.

Thou God, whom heavenly hosts obey, How highly bless'd is he, Whose hope and trust, securely placed, Are still reposed on thee!

EVENING PRAYER.

Psalm xli. Beatus qui intelligit.

Blessed is he that considereth the poor and needy; the Lord shall deliver him in the time of trouble. The Lord preserve him, and keep him alive, that he may be blessed upon earth; and deliver not thou him into the will of his enemies.

The Lord comfort him when he lieth sick upon his bed; make thou all his bed in his sickness. I said, Lord, be merciful unto me; heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee. Mine enemies speak evil of me, when shall he die, and his name perish? And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity, and his heart conceiveth falsehood within himself; and when he cometh forth, he telleth it. All mine enemies whisper together against me; even against me do they imagine this evil.

Let the sentence of guiltiness proceed against him; and now that he lieth, let him rise up no more.

Yea, even mine own familiar friend whom I trusted, who did also eat of my bread, hath laid great wait

But be thou merciful unto me, O Lord; raise thou me up again, and I shall reward them

By this I know thou favourest me, that mine enemy doth not triumph against me.

And when I am in my health, thou upholdest me, and shalt set me before thy face for ever.

Monday Evening, March 23d.

HYMN 76.

"Who, when He had purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high."

Hail, Thou once despised Jesus;
Hail, Thou Galilean King;
Thou didst suffer to release us;
Thou didst free salvation bring!
Hail, Thou agonizing Saviour,
Bearer of our sin and shame;
By Thy merit we find favor;
Life is given through Thy Name.

Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,
All our sins were on Thee laid;
By Almighty love anointed,
Thou hast full atonement made.
All Thy people are forgiven
Through the virtue of Thy Blood;
Open'd is the gate of heaven,
Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

Jesus, hail! enthroned in glory,
There forever to abide,
All the heavenly hosts adore Thee,
Seated at Thy Father's side;
There for sinners Thou art pleading;
There Thou dost our place prepare;
Ever for us interceding,
Till in glory-we appear.

Worship, honour, power, and blessing Thou art worthy to receive; Loudest praises, without ceasing, Meet it is for us to give! Help, ye bright angelic spirits, Bring your sweetest, noblest lays; Help to sing our Saviour's merits, Help to chant Emmanuel's praise.

HYMN 458.

" Lovest thou Me?"

My God, I love Thee—not because I hope for heaven thereby;
Nor yet because, if I love not,
I must forever die.

But, O my Jesus, Thou didst me Upon the Cross embrace; For me didst bear the nails and spear, And manifold disgrace.

And griefs and torments numberless,
And sweat of agony,
E'en death itself; and all for me
Who was Thine enemy.

Then why, O blessed Jesus Christ, Should I not love Thee well? Not for the hope of winning heaven, Or of escaping hell;

Not with the hope of gaining aught;
Not seeking a reward;
But as Thyself hast loved me,
O ever-loving Lord!

E'en so I love Thee, and will love, And in Thy praise will sing; Solely because Thou art my God, And my eternal King.

HYMN 252.

"Surely He hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows."

When our heads are bowed with woe, When our bitter tears o'erflow, When we mourn the lost, the dear, Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

Thou our throbbing flesh hast worn, Thou our mortal griefs hast borne, Thou hast shed the human tear; Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

When the solemn death-bell tolls For our own departing souls, When our final doom is near, Jesus, Son of Mary, hear. Thou hast bowed the dying head, Thou the blood of life hast shed, Thou hast filled a mortal bier; Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

When the heart is sad within With the thought of all its sin, When the spirit shrinks with fear, Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

Thou, the shame, the grief, hast known, Though the sins were not Thine own; Thou hast deigned their load to bear, Jesus, Son of Mary hear.

THE FIFTH SELECTION OF PSALMS.

Psalm xxvi. Judica me, Domine.

Be thou my Judge, O Lord, for I have walked innocently: my trust hath been also in the Lord, therefore shall I not fall.

Examine me, O Lord, and prove me; try out my reins and my heart.

For thy loving kindness is ever before mine eyes; and I will walk in thy truth

I have not dwelt with vain persons; neither will I have fellowship with the deceitful.

I have hated the congregation of the wicked; and will not sit among the ungodly.

I will wash my hands in innocency, O Lord; and so will I go to thine altar;

That I may show the voice of thanksgiving,

and tell of all thy wondrous works.

Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honour dwell-

O shut not up my soul with the sinners, nor my life with the blood-thirsty;
In whose hands is wickedness, and their right hand is full of gifts.

But as for me, I will walk innocently; O deliver me, and be merciful unto me.

My foot standeth right: I will praise the Lord in the congregations.

Psalm xliii. Judica me, Deus,

Give sentence with me, O God, and defend my cause against the ungodly people; O deliver me from the deceitful and wicked man.

For thou art the God of my strength, why hast thou put me from thee; and why go I so heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me?

O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

And that I may go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladness; and upon the harp will I give thanks unto thee, O God, my God.

Why art thou so heavy, O my soul? and why art thou so disquieted within me?

O put thy trust in God; for I will yet give him thanks, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Psalm cxli. Domine, clamavi.

and consider my voice, when I cry unto thee.

Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as the incense; and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sacrifice.
Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth, and keep the door of my lips

O let not mine heart be inclined to any evil thing; let me not be occupied in ungodly works with the men that work wickedness, lest I eat of such things as please them.

Let the righteous rather smite me friendly, and reprove me.

But let not their precious balms break my

Lord, I call upon thee: haste thee unto me, 'head; yea, I will pray yet against their wicked-

Let their judges be overthrown in stony places, that they may hear my words; for they are sweet.

Our bones lie scattered before the pit, like as when one breaketh and heweth wood upon the earth.

But mine eyes look unto thee, O Lord God; in thee is my trust; O cast not out my soul.

Keep me from the snare that they had laid for me, and from the traps of the wicked doers.

Tuesday Evening, March 24th.

HYMN 251.

"Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus."

Lord, as to Thy dear Cross we flee, And plead to be forgiven, So let Thy life our pattern be, And form our souls for heaven.

Help us, through good report and ill, Our daily cross to bear; Like Thee, to do our Father's will, Our brethren's grief to share.

Let grace our selfishness expel, Our earthliness refine;

And kindness in our bosoms dwell, As free and true as Thine.

If joy shall at Thy bidding fly, And grief's dark day come on, We in our turn would meekly cry, " Father, Thy will be done.

Keep peaceful in the midst of strife, Forgiving and forgiven,
O may we lead the pilgrim's life, And follow Thee to heaven.

HYMN 78.

"The preaching of the Cross is unto us who are saved the power of God."

We sing the praise of Him Who died,
()f Him Who died upon the Cross:
The sinner's hope let men deride:
For this we count the world but loss.

Inscribed upon the Cross we see
In shining letters, God is love:
He bears our sins upon the tree:
He brings us mercy from above.

The Cross—it takes our guilt away;
It holds the fainting spirit up;

It cheers with hope the gloomy day, And sweetens every bitter cup.

It makes the coward spirit brave,
And nerves the feeble arm for fight;
It takes its terror from the grave,
And gilds the bed of death with light.

The balm of life, the cure of woe,
The measure and the pledge of love,
The sinner's refuge here below,
The angels' theme in heaven above.

HYMN 380.

"He healeth the broken in heart."

When, wounded sore, the stricken soul,
Lies bleeding and unbound,
One only hand, a pierced hand,
Can heal the sinner's wound.

When sorrow swells the laden heart, And tears of anguish flow, One only heart, a broken heart, Can feel the sinner's woe.

When penitence has wept in vain Over some foul, dark spot,

One only stream, a stream of blood, Can wash away the blot.

'T is Jesus' blood that washes white,
His hand that brings relief,
His heart that 's touch'd with all our joys,
And feeleth for our grief.

Lift up Thy bleeding hand, O Lord! Unseal that cleansing tide: We have no shelter from our sin But in Thy wounded side.

THE FOURTEENTH SELECTION OF PSALMS.

Psalm cii. Domine, exaudi.

Hear my prayer, O Lord: and let my crying come unto thee.

Hide not thy face from me in the time of my trouble: incline thine ear unto me when I call; () hear me, and that right soon.

For my days are consumed away like smoke: and my bones are burnt up as it were a firebrand. My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass: so that I forget to eat my bread.

For the voice of my groaning: my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

I am become like a pelican in the wilderness: and like an owl that is in the desert.

I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow: that sitteth alone upon the house top.

Mine enemies revile me all the day long: and they that are mad upon me are sworn together against me.

For I have eaten ashes as it were bread: and mingled my drink with weeping.

And that, because of thine indignation and wrath: for thou hast taken me up, and cast me down.

My days are gone like a shadow: and I am withered like grass.

But thou O Lord shalt endure for ever: and thy remembrance throughout all generations.

Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion: for it is time that thou have mercy upon her, yea the time is come.

And why? thy servants think upon her stones: and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

The heathen shall fear thy Name O Lord: and all the kings of the earth thy Majesty.

When the Lord shall build up Sion: and when his glory shall appear.

When he turneth him unto the prayer of the poor destitute: and despiseth not their desire.

This shall be written for those that come after: and the people which shall be born shall praise the Lord.

For he hath looked down from his sanctuary: out of the heaven did the Lord behold the earth.

That he might hear the mourning of such as are in captivity: and deliver the children appointed unto death.

That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion: and his worship at Jerusalem.

When the people are gathered together: and the kingdoms also to serve the Lord.

He brought down my strength in my journey: and shortened my days.

But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of mine age: as for thy years they endure throughout all generations.

Thou Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: they all shall wax old as doth a garment.;

And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

The children of thy servants shall continue: and their seed shall stand fast in thy sight

Wednesday Evening, March 25th.

HYMN 63.

" My soul fleeth unto the Lord."

Lord, in this Thy mercy's day, Ere the time shall pass away, On our knees we fall and pray.

Holy Jesus, grant us tears, Fill us with heart-searching fears, Ere the hour of doom appears.

Lord, on us Thy Spirit pour, Kneeling lowly at Thy door, Ere it close for evermore.

By Thy night of agony, By Thy supplicating cry, By Thy willingness to die. By Thy tears of bitter woe For Jerusalem below, Let us not Thy love forego.

Judge and Saviour of our race, When we see Thee face to face, Grant us 'neath Thy wings a place.

On Thy love we rest alone, And that love will then be known By the pardoned round Thy throne.

HYMN 53.

"In that He Himself hath suffered being tempted, He is able to succour them that are tempted."

Saviour, when in dust to Thee, Low we bow th' adoring knee; When, repentant, to the skies Scarce we lift our streaming eyes: O by all Thy pains and woe, Suffer'd once for man below, Bending from Thy throne on high, Hear our solemn litany.

By Thy birth and early years, By Thy human griefs and fears, By Thy fasting and distress In the lonely wilderness, By Thy victory in the hour Of the subtle tempter's power; Jesus, look with pitying eye; Hear our solemn litany. By Thy conflict with despair, By Thine agony of prayer, By the purple robe of scorn; By Thy wounds, Thy crown of thorn, By Thy cross, Thy pangs, and cries, By Thy perfect sacrifice; Jesus, look with pitying eye; Hear our solemn litany.

By Thy deep expiring groan, By the seal'd sepulchral stone, By Thy triumph o'er the grave, By Thy power from death to save; Mighty God, ascended Lord, To Thy throne in heaven restored, Prince and Saviour, hear our cry, Hear our solemn litany.

HYMN 396.

"The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth us from all sin."

For ever here my rest shall be, Close to Thy bleeding side; This all my hope and all my plea, "For me the Saviour died."

My dying Saviour and my God,
Fountain for guilt and sin!
Sprinkle me ever with Thy Blood,
And Canse and keep me clean,

Wash me, and make thus Thine own; Wash me, and mine Thou art; Wash me, but not my feet alone— My hands, my head, my heart.

The atonement of Thy Blood apply, Till faith in sight improve; Till hope in full fruition die, And all my soul is love,

THE SEVENTEENTH SELECTION OF PSALMS.

Psalm cxxiii. Ad te levavi oculos meos.

Unto thee lift I up mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

Behold, even as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress: even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until he have mercy upon us.

Have mercy upon us O Lord, have mercy upon us: for we are utterly despised.

Our soul is filled with the scornful reproof of the wealthy: and with the despitefulness of of the proud.

Psalm exxiv. Nisi quia Dominus.

If the Lord himself had not been on our side, now may Israel say: If the Lord himself had not been on our side, when men rose up against

They had swallowed us up quick: when they were so wrathfully displeased at us.

Yea, the waters had drowned us: and the stream had gone over our soul.

The deep waters of the proud: had gone even over our soul.

But praised be the Lord: who hath not given us over for a prey unto their teeth.

Our soul is escaped even as a bird out of the snare of the fowler: the snare is broken, and we are delivered

Our help standeth in the Name of the Lord: who hath made heaven and earth.

Psalm cxxv.

Qui confidunt.

They that put their trust in the Lord shall be even as the Mount Sion: which may not be removed, but standeth fast for ever.

The hills stand about Jerusalem: even so standeth the Lord round about his people, from this time forth for ever more.

For the rod of the ungodly cometh not into the lot of the righteous: lest the righteous put their hand unto wickedness.

Do well O Lord: unto those that are good and true of heart.

As for such as thrn back unto their own wickedness: the Lord shall lead them forth with the evil doers, but peace shall be upon Israel

Thursday Evening, March 26th.

HYMN 87.

" Who loved me and gave Himself for me."

O Sacred Head, now wounded, With grief and shame bowed down, Now scornfully surrounded With thorns, Thine only crown.
O sacred Head, what glory,
What bliss till now was Thine! Yet, though despised and gory, I joy to call Thee mine.

What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered, Was all for sinners' gain: Mine, mine was the transgression, But Thine the deadly pain. Lo, hear I fall, my Saviour:
'Tis I deserve Thy place;
Look on me with Thy favour, Vouchsafe to me Thy grace.

The joy can ne'er be spoken, Above all joys beside, When in Thy body broken I thus with safety hide.

Lord of my life, desiring Thy glory now to see, Beside Thy Cross expiring, I'd breathe my soul to Thee.

What language shall I borrow To thank Thee, dearest Friend, For this Thy dying sorrow, Thy pity without end?
O make me Thine for ever; And should I fainting be, Lord, let me never, never Outlive my love for Thee.

Be near me when I'm dying, O show Thy Cross to me: And to my succour flying, Come, Lord, and set me free. These eyes, new faith receiving, From Jesus shall not move; For he, who dies believing, Dies safely through Thy love.

HYMN 84.

" Unto you therefore which believe He is precious."

Sweet the moments, rich in blessing, Which before the Cross I spend Life, and health, and peace possessing, From the sinner's dying Friend.

Here I rest, for ever viewing, Mercy poured in streams of Blood; Precious drops, my soul bedewing, Plead, and claim my peace with God. Truly blessed is the station, Low before His Cross to lie; Whilst I see divine compassion Beaming in His languid eye.

Lord, in ceaseless contemplation Fix my thankful heart on Thee, Till I taste Thy full salvation And Thine unveil'd glory see.

HYMN 86.

"Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall."

Go to dark Gethsemane,
Ye that feel the tempter's power,
Your Redeemer's conflict see,
Watch with Him one bitter hour;
Turn not from His griefs away,
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

Follow to the judgement hall; View the Lord of life arraing'd; O the wormwood and the gall! O the pangs His soul sustain'd! Shun not suffering, shame, or loss; Learn of Him to bear the cross.

Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
There, adoring at His feet,
Mark the miracle of time,
God's own sacrifice complete;
"It is finish'd!" hear Him cry;
Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

THE HOLY COMMUNION.

Good Friday Morning, March 27th.

HYMN 85.

"He said, It is finished; and He bowed His head, and gave up the ghost."

'Tis finished; so the Saviour cried, And meekly bowed His head and died, 'Tis finished: yes, the work is done, The battle fought, the victory won.

'Tis finished: all that heaven decreed, And all the ancient prophets said, Is now fulfilled, as long designed, In Me, the Saviour of mankind.

'Tis finished: Aaron now no more Must stain his robes with purple gore: The sacred veil is rent in twain, And Jewish rites no more remain. 'Tis finished: this My dying groan Shall sins of every kind atone: Millions shall be redeemed from death, By this, My last expiring breath.

'Tis finished: heaven is reconciled, And all the powers of darkness spoiled: Peace, love, and happiness, again Return and dwell with sinful men.

'Tis finished: let the joyful sound Be heard through all the nations round: 'Tis finished: let the echo fly Through heaven and hell, through earth and sky.

HYMN 231.

"While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

There is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified
Who died to save us all.

We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there,

He died that we might be forgiven, He died to make us good, That we might go at last to heaven, Saved by His precious blood.

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in

O, dearly, dearly has He loved, And we must love Him too, And trust in His redeeming blood, And try His works to do.

HYMN 89.

" They crucified Him."

O come and mourn with me awhile:
O come ye to the Saviour's side;
O come, together let us mourn;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

Have we no tears to shed for Him, While soldiers scoff and Jews deride? Ah! look how patiently He hangs; Jesus, our Lord, is crucified. Seven times He spake, seven words of love; And all three hours His silence cried For mercy on the souls of men; Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

A broken heart, a fount of tears,
Ask, and they will not be denied;
Lord Jesus, may we love and weep,
Since Thou for us art crucifled.

PROPER PSALMS.

Psalm xxii. Deus, Deus meus!

My God! my God! look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint?

O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not; and in the night-season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy, O thou Worship of Our fathers hoped in thee; they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them.

They called upon thee, and were holpen; they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

But as for me, I am a worm, and no man; a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people.

All they that see me laugh me to scorn; they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying, He trusted in God, that he would deliver him; let him deliver him, if he will have him.

But thou art he that took me out of my mother's womb; thou wast my hope, when I hanged yet upon my mother's breasts.

I have been left unto thee ever since I was born; thou art my God even from my mother's womb.

O go not from me; for trouble is hard at hand, and there is none to help me

Many oxen are come about me; fat bulls of Basan close me in on every side.

They gape upon me with their mouths, as it were a ramping and a roaring lion.

I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; my heart also in the midst of my body is even like melting wax.

My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue cleaveth to my gums, and thou shalt bring me into the dust of death.

For many dogs are come about me, and the counsel of the wicked layeth siege against me.

They pierced my hands and my feet; I may tell all my bones: they stand staring and looking upon me.

They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

But be not thou far from me, O Lord; thou art my succour, haste thee to help me.

Deliver my soul from the sword, my darling from the power of the dog.

Save me from the lion's mouth; thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

I will declare thy Name unto my brethren; in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob; and fear him, all ye seed of Israel.

And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even a thanksgiving unto our God.

Many shall see it, and fear, and shall put their trust in the Lord.

Blessed is the man that hath set his hope in the Lord, and turned not unto the proud, and to such as go about with lies.

O Lord my God, great are the wondrous works which thou hast done, like as be also thy thoughts, which are to us-ward; and yet there is no man that ordereth them unto thee.

If I should declare them, and speak of them, they should be more than I am able to express.

In the volume of the book it is written of me, that I should fulfil thy will, O my God: I am content to do it; yea, thy law is within my heart.

I have declared thy righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I will not refrain my lips, O Lord, and that thou knowest.

I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; my talk hath been of thy truth, and of thy salvation.

I have not kept back thy loving mercy and truth from the great congregation.

Withdraw not thou thy mercy from me, O Lord; let thy loving-kindness and thy truth always preserve me.

For innumerable troubles are come about me: my sins have taken such hold upon me, that I am not able to look up; yea, they are more in number than the hairs of my head, and my heart hath failed me.

HYMN 88.

" It is finished."

Hark! the voice of love and mercy Sounds aloud from Calvary; See, it rends the rocks asunder Shakes the earth, and veils the sky! "It is finish'd!" Hear the dying Saviour's cry.

"It is finish'd!" O what pleasure Do the precious words afford! Heavenly blessings, without measure, Flow to us from Christ the Lord. "It is finish'd!" Saints, the dying words record.

Finish'd all the types and shadows Of the ceremonial law; Finish'd all that God had promised: Death and hell no more shall awe: "It is finish'd!" Saints from hence your comfort draw.

Tune your harps anew, ye seraphs; Strike them to Emmanuel's name; All on earth, and all in heaven, Join the triumph to proclaim. Alleluia! Glory to the bleeding Lamb!

HYMN 378.

"I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me."

Behold the Saviour of mankind Nail'd to the shameful tree; How vast the love that Him inclined To bleed and die for me!

Hark, how He groans! while nature shakes, And earth's strong pillars bend; The temple's veil in sunder breaks, The solid marbles rend.

'Tis done! the precious ransom's paid;
"Receive my soul!" He cries; See where He bows His sacred head! He bows His head and dies.

But soon He'll break death's envious chain, And in full glory shine; O Lamb of God, was ever pain, Was ever love like Thine!

HYMN 83.

" God forbid that I should glory, save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ."

When I survey the wondrous Cross On which the Prince of Glory died, My richest gain I count but loss, And pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast. Save in the Cross of Christ my God: All the vain things that charm me most, I sacrifice them to Thy Blood.

See! from His head, His hands, His feet, Sorrow and love flow mingled down; Did e'er such love and sorrow meet? Or thorns compose a Saviour's crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine. That were a tribute far too small; Love so amazing, so divine, Demands my life, my soul, my all.

That they may privily shoot at him that is perfect: suddenly do they hit him, and fear not.

They encourage themselves in mischief, and commune among themselves, how they may lay snares; and say, that no man shall see them.

They imagine wickedness, and practise it; that they keep secret among themselves, every man in the deep of his heart.

But God shall suddenly shoot at them with a swift arrow, that they shall be wounded.

Yea, their own tongues shall make them fall; insomuch that whoso seeth them shall laugh them to scorn

And all men that see it shall say, This hath God done; for they shall perceive that it is his work.

The righteous shall rejoice in the Lord, and put his trust in him; and all they that are true of heart shall be glad.

Psalm Ixxxviii. Domine, Deus.

O Lord God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee; O let my prayer enter into thy presence, incline thine ear unto my calling;

For my soul is full of trouble, and my life draweth nigh unto hell.

I am counted as one of them that go down into the pit, and I have been even as a man that hath no strength.

Free among the dead, like unto them that are wounded, and lie in the grave, who are out of remembrance, and are cut away from thy hand.

Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in a place of darkness, and in the deep.

Thine indignation lieth hard upon me, and thou hast vexed me with all thy storms.

Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me, and made me to be abhorred of them.

I am so fast in prison that I cannot get forth.

My sight faileth for very trouble; Lord I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched forth my hands unto thee.

Dost thou show wonders among the dead? or shall the dead rise up again, and praise thee?

Shall thy loving-kindness be showed in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

Shall thy wondrous works be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land where all things are forgotten?

Unto thee have I cried, O Lord; and early shall my prayer come before thee.

Lord, why abhorrest thou my soul, and hidest

thou thy face from me

I am in misery, and like unto him that is at the point to die; even from my youth up thy terrors have I suffered with a troubled mind.

Thy wrathful displeasure goeth over me, and the fear of thee hath undone me.

They came round about me daily like water, and compassed me together on every side.

My lovers and friends hast thou put away from me, and hid mine acquaintance out of my sight.

"I shall not die, but live."

It is not death to die, To leave this weary road. And 'midst the brotherhood on high To be at home with God.

HYMN.

Jesus call us; o'er the tumolt Of our life's wild, restless sea, Day by day His sweet voice soundeth, Saying' "Christian, follow Me;"

As of old, St. Andrew heard it By the Galilean lake, Turned from home, and toil, and kindred, Leaving all for His dear sake.

Jesus calls us from the worship
Of the vain world's golden store;

From each idol that would keep us, Saying, "Christian, love Me more."

In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,
Still He calls, in cares and pleasures,
"That we love Him more than these."

Jesus calls us; by Thy mercies, Saviour, make us hear Thy call, Give our hearts to Thine obedience, Serve and love Thee best of all.

HYMN.

King of saints, O Lord incarnate, In Thy saints Thy praise we sing, As to-day, with glad thanksgiving, Hymns of grateful love we bring. Of the throned Twelve, Saint Andrew First received and heard, Thy call. Thine the wondrous grace that made him Genflest, meekest, of them all.

Thee, true Lamb of God, beholding,
(As the Baptist testified,)
He obeys Thy gracious bidding
In Thy dwelling to abide;
Finding there the true Messiah,
Whom his faith so long had sought,
There with joy his brother Simon
To his Saviour's feet he brought.

From the Galilean waters
At Thy word he follows Thee,
Fisher's net and craft exchanging
For the Apostle's dignity:
By the promise of the Father,
Armed with the Spirit's sword,
Forth he goes to preach the gospel,
Herald of the incarnate Word.

Grant that we, Thy call obeying, May like Andrew follow thee, Here in gentle love and suffering To a blest eternity; Sharers of thy cross, and with him Sharers of Thy crown above, See the vision of Thy beauty, Taste the sweetness of Thy love.

LEVENTA

Through good report and evil, Lord, Still guided by Thy faithful Word, Our staff, our buckler, and our sword, We follow thee.

In silence of the lonely night,
In the full glow of day's clear light,
Through life's strange wanderings, dark or bright,

We follow Thee.

Strengthened by Thee we forward go,
'Mid smile or scoff of friend or foe,
Through pain or ease, through joy or woe,
We follow Thee.

With enemies on every side, We lean on Thee, the Crucified, Forsaking all on earth beside, We follow Thee.

O Master, point Thou out the way. Nor suffer Thou our steps to stray; Then in the path that leads to Day, We follow Thee.

Thou hast passed on before our face; Thy footsteps on the way we trace: Oh, keep us, aid us, by Thy grace:

We follow Thee.

Whom have we in the heaven above,
Whom on this earth, save Thee, to love?
Still in Thy light we onward move;
We follow Thee.

"And so shall we ever be with the Lord."

For ever with the Lord! Amen, so let it be! Life from the dead is in that word; 'Tis immortality.

Here in the body pent, Absent from him I roam, Yet nightly pitch my moving tent A day's march nearer home.

My Father's house on high,
Home of my soul, how near
At times to faith's far-seeing eye
Thy golden gates appear!

Ah, then my spirit faints
To reach the land I love,
The bright inheritance of saints,
Jerusalem above.

Yet clouds will intervene, And all my prospect flies; Like Noah's dove, I flit between Rough seas and stormy skies.

Anon the clouds depart,
The winds and waters cease,
And sweetly o'er my gladdened heart
Expands the bow of peace.

How bright these glorious spirits shine! Whence all their white array? How came they to the blissful seats Of everlasting day? Lo! these are they from sufferings great,

Who came to realms of light: And in the blood of Christ have washed Those robes which shine so bright.

Now with triumphal palms they stand Before the throne on high, And serve the God they love amidst

"Jesus, Thy boundless love to me."

Jesus, Thy boundless love to me
No thought can reach, no tongue declare;
Oh, knit my thankful heart to Thee,
And reign without a rival there!
Thine wholly, Thine alone, I am;
Be Thou alone my constant flame.

Oh, grant that nothing in my soul
May dwell, but Thy pure love alone!
Oh, may Thy love possess me whole,
My joy, my treasure, and my crown:
Strange flames far from my heart remove;
May every act, word, thought, be love!

O love, how cheering is Thy ray!
All pain before Thy presence flies:
Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away,

Where'er Thy healing beams arise.
O Jesus, nothing may I see,
Nothing desire or seek, but Thee!

Still let Thy love point out my way!
What wondrous things Thy love hath wrought!

HYMN 392.

" To whom shall we go but unto Thee?"

Just as I am,—without one plea,
But that Thy Blood was shed for me,
And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, and waiting not To rid my soul of one dark blot, To Thee, Whose Blood can cleanse each spot, O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am,—though tossed about With many a conflict, many a doubt, Fightings and fears within; without, O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am,—poor, wretched, blind,— Sight, riches, healing of the mind, Yea, all I need, in Thee to find, O Lamb of God, I come

Just as I am,—Thou wilt receive, Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve; Because Thy promise I believe, O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, -Thy love unknown Has broken every barrier down;
Now to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

HYMN 515.

"Whom have I in heaven but Thee."

Thou hidden love of God, Whose height, Whose depth unfathom'd no man knows; I see from far Thy beauteous light,
Inly I sigh for Thy repose:
My heart is pain'd, nor can it be
At rest till it find rest in Thee.

Is there a thing beneath the sun
That strives with Thee my heart to share?
Ah! tear it thence, and reign alone
The Lord of every motion there.
Then shall my heart from earth be free,
When it hath found repose in Thee.

O hide this self from me, that I No more, but Christ in me, may live; My vile affections crucify,
Nor let one darling lust snrvive;
In all things nothing may I see,
Nothing desire, or seek, but Thee.

Each moment draw from earth away
My heart, that lowly waits Thy call;
Speak to my inmost soul, and say,
I am thy Love, thy God, thy All:
To feel Thy power, to hear Thy voice,
To taste Thy love, be all my choice.

HYMN 443.

"I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not."

In the hour of trial. Jesus, plead for me; Lest by base denial I depart from Thee; When Thou see'st me waver, With a look recall, Nor for fear or favour Suffer me to fall.

With forbidden pleasures Would this vain world charm; Or its sordid treasures Spread to work me harm; Bring to my remembrance Sad Gethsemane, Or, in darker semblance, Cross-crown'd Calvary

Should Thy mercy send me Sorrow, toil and woe; Or should pain attend me On my path below; Grant that I may never Fail Thy hand to see; Grant that I may ever Cast my care on Thee.

When my last hour cometh,
Fraught with strife and pain,
When my dust returneth
To the dust again;
On Thy truth relying Through that mortal strife, Jesus, take me, dying, To eternal life.

"I flee unto Thee to hide me."

Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to Thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high;
Hide me, O my Saviour hide,
Till the storm of life be past;
Safe into the haven guide,
O receive my soul at last.

Other refuge have I none, Hangs my helpless soul on Thee; Leave, ah! leave me not alone, Still support and comfort me.

All my trust on Thee is stay'd, All my help from Thee I bring: Cover my defenceless head With the shadow of Thy wing.

Flenteous grace with Thee is found,
Grace to cover all my sin;

"In whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins."

Weary of earth, and laden with my sin, I look at heaven and long to enter in, But there no evil thing may find a home: And yet I hear a voice that bids me "Come."

So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand In the pure glory of that holy land? Before the whiteness of that throne appear? Yet there are hands stretch'd out to draw me near.

The while I fain would tread the heavenly way, Evil is ever with me, day by day; Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall, "Repent, confess, thou shalt be loosed from all." It is the voice of Jesus that I hear, His are the hands stretch'd out to draw me near, And His the blood that can for all atone, And set me faultless there before the throne.

'Twas He who found me on the deathly wild. And made me heir of heaven, the Father's child. And day by day, whereby my soul may live, Gives me His grace of pardon, and will give.

By Thy birth and early years, By Thy human griefs and fears, By Thy fasting and distress In the lonely wilderness, By Thy victory in the hour Of the subtle tempter's power; Jesus, look with pitying eye; Hear our solemn litany. By Thy conflict with despair,
By Thine agony of prayer.
By the purple robe of scorn,
By Thy wounds, Thy crown of thorn,
By Thy cross, Thy pangs, and cries,
By Thy perfect sacrifice;

PSALTER FOR THE THIRTEENTH DAY.

EVENING PRAYER.

Psalm lxix. Salvum me fac.

Save me, O God; for the waters are come in, even 1 unto my soul.

I stick fast in the deep mire, where no ground is: I am come into deep waters, so that the floods run

I am weary of crying; my throat is dry; my sight faileth me for waiting so long upon my God. They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head; they that are mine enemies.

and would destroy me guiltless, are mighty.

I paid them the things that I never took: God, thou knowest my simpleness, and my faults are not Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord Gop of hosts, be ashamed for my cause; let not those that seek thee be confounded through me, O Lord God of Israel.

And why? for thy sake have I suffered reproof; shame hath covered my face.

I am become a stranger unto my brethren, even an alien unto my mother's children.

For the zeal of thine house hath even eaten me; and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee are fallen upon me.

I wept, and chastened myself with fasting, and that was turned to my reproof.

I put on sackcloth also, and they jested upon me
They that sit in the gate speak against me, and the drunkards make songs upon me.

But, LORD, I make my prayer unto thee in an acceptable time

Hear me, O God. in the multitude of thy mercy, even in the truth of thy salvation.

Take me out of the mire, that I sink not; O let me be delivered from them that hate me and out of the deep waters.

Let not the water-flood drown me, neither let the deep swallow me up: and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

Hear me, O Loan, for thy loving kindness is comfortable; turn thee unto me according to the multitude of thy mercies:

And hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in trouble: O haste thee, and hear me.

Drawnigh unto my soul, and save it; O deliver me, because of mine enemie

Thou hast known my reproof, my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all in thy sight. Thy rebuke hath broken my heart; I am full of heaviness: I look for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort

They gave me gall to eat; and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

Let their table be made a snare to take themselves withal; and let the things that should have been for their wealth be unto them an occcasion of

Let their eyes be blinded, that they see not; and ever bow thou down their backs. Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful displeasure take hold of them. Let their habitation be void, and no man to dwell in their tents. For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk how they may vex them whom thou hast wounded. Let them fail from one wickedness to another, and not come into thy righteousness.

Let them be wiped out of the book of the living, and not be written among the righteous.

As for me, when I am poor and in heaviness, thy help, O God, shall lift me up I will praise the Name of God with a song, and

This also shall please the Lord better than a bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

The humble shall consider this, and be glad: seek ye after God, and your soul shall live.
For the Lord heareth the poor, and despiseth not Let heaven and earth praise him: the sea, and all that moveth therein.

For God will save Sion, and build the cities of Judali, that men may dwell there, and have it in

The posterity also of his servants shall inherit it: and they that love his Name shall dwell therein.

Psalm lxx. Deus, in adratorium,

Haste thee, O God, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O LORD.

Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul; let them be turned backward and put to confusion that wish me evil.

Let them for their reward be soon brought to shame, that cry over me. There! there!

But let all those that seek thee be joyful and glad in thee; and let all such as delight in thy salvation say alway. The Lord be praised.

As for me I am poor and in misery : haste thee anto me, () God.

Thou art my helper, and my redeemer: O LORD, make no long tarrying.

HYMN

Jesus call us, o'er the tumult Of our life's wild, restless sea, Day by day His sweet voice soundeth, Saying, "Christian, follow Me."

As of old, St. Andrew heard it By the Galilean lake, Turned from home, and toil, and kindred, Leaving all for His dear sake.

Jesus calls us from the worship
Of the vain world's golden store;

From each idol that would keep us, Saying, "Christian, love Me more."

In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,
Still He calls, in cares and pleasures,
"That we love Him more than these."

Jesus calls us; by Thy mercies, Saviour make us hear Thy call, Give our hearts to Thine obedience, Serve and love Thee best of all.

Statement of the work of the Brotherhood during the past year, by Rev. HENRY S. GETZ. First Vice President.

HYMN.

King of saints, O Lord incarnate, In Thy saints Thy praise we sing, As to-day, with glad thanksgiving. Hymns of grateful love we bring. Of the throned Twelve, Saint Andrew First received and heard Thy call. Thine the wondrous grace that made him Gentlest, meekest, of them all

Tinee, true Lamb of God, beholding, (As the Baptist testified.)
He obeys Thy gracious bidding
In Thy dwelling to abide;
Finding there the true Messiah,
Whom his faith so long had sought,
There with joy his brother Simon
To his Saviour's feet he brought.

From the Galilean waters
At Thy word he follows Thee,
Fisher's net and craft exchanging
For the Apostle's dignity:
By the promise of the Father,

Armed with the Spirit's sword, Forth he goes to preach the gospel, Herald of the incarnate Word.

Grant that we, Thy call obeying, May like Andrew follow thee, Here in gentle love and suffering To a blest eternity; Sharers of Thy cross, and with him Sharers of Thy crown above, See the vision of Thy beauty, Taste the sweetness of Thy love.

HYMN.

The call to arms is sounding,
The freemen muster strong,
While saints beneath the altar
Are crying "Lord, how long?"
The living and the loving Christ's loyal standard raise,
And marching on to conflict.
Shout forth their Captain's praise.

No time for self indulgence, For resting by the way; Repose will come at even, But toil is for the day; Work like the blessed Jesus, Who from His earliest youth Would do His Father's business, And witness for the truth.

For the one Faith, the true Faith, The Faith which cannot fail, For the one Church, the true Church, 'Gainst which no foes prevail. Made one with God Incarnate
We in His might must win
The glory of self-conquest,
Of victory over sin.

Behold! upon Mount Sion A glorious people stand, A crown on every forehead, A palm in every hand. Lo these are they who boldly The Name of Christ confessed, And now triumphant praise Him, In heaven's unresting rest.

O Jesus, Who art waiting,
Thy faithful ones to crown,
Vouchsafe to bless our conflict,
Our loving service own;
Come in each heart, forever
As King adored to reign,
Till we with saints triumphant,
Uplift the victor strain.

Psalm 147.

O praise the Lord, for it is a good thing to sing praises unto our God; yea, a joyful and pleasant thing it is to be thankful.

The Lord doth build up Jerusalem, and gather together the outcasts of Israel.

He healeth those that are broken in heart, and giveth medicine to heal their sickness.

He telleth the number of the stars, and calleth them all by their names.

Great is our Lord and great is his power; yea, and his wisdom is infinite.

The Lord setteth up the meek, and bringeth the ungodly down to the ground.

O sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving; sing praises upon the harp unto our God.

Who covereth the heaven with clouds, and prepareth rain for the earth; and maketh the grass to grow upon the mountains, and herb for the use of men.

Who giveth fodder unto the cattle, and feedeth the young ravens that call upon him.

He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse; neither delighteth he in any man's legs.

But the Lord's delight is in them that fear him, and put their trust in his mercy. Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem; praise Thy God, O Sion.

For he hath made fast the bars of thy gates, and hath blessed thy children within thee.

He maketh peace in thy borders, and filleth thee with the flour of wheat.

He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth, and his word runneth very swiftly.

He giveth snow like wool, and scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes.

He casteth forth his ice like morsels; who is able to abide his frost?

He sendeth out his word, and melteth them; he bloweth with his wind, and the waters flow.

He showeth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and ordinances unto Israel.

He hath not dealt so with any nation; neither have the heathen knowledge of his laws.

Gloria in Excelsis.

Creed and Collects.

Hymn.

Father of mercies, God of love, Whose gifts all creatures share, The rolling seasons as they move Proclaim Thy constant care.

When in the bosom of the earth
The sower hid the grain,
Thy goodness marked its secret birth,
And sent the early rain.

The spring's sweet influence, Lord, was Thine,
The seasons knew Thy call;

Thou mad'st the summer sun to shine,
The summer dews to fall.

Thy gifts of mercy from above
Matured the swelling grain;
And now the harvest crowns Thy love,
And plenty fills the plain.

Oh, ne'er may our forgetful hearts O'er look Thy bounteous care, But what our Father's hand imparts Still own in praise and prayer.

Address.

HYMN.

Who are these like stars appearing,
These, before God's throne who stand?
Each a golden crown is wearing;
Who are all this glorious band?
Alleluia! hark they sing,
Praising loud their heavenly King.

Who are these of dazzling brightness,
These in God's own truth arrayed,
Clad in robes of purest whiteness,
Robes whose lustre ne'er shall fade,
Ne'er be touched by time's rude hand?
Whence comes all this glorious band?

These are they who have contended For their Saviour's honor long, Wrestling on till life was ended. Following not the sinful throng:
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph by the Lamb have gained.

These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified:
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.

These, like priests, have watched and waited,
Offering up to Christ their will,
Soul and body consecrated,
Day and night they serve Him still.
Now in God's most holy place,
Blest they stand before His face.

ADDRESSES.

HYMN.

Oh! what, if we are Christ's, Is earthly shame or loss? Bright shall the crown of glory be When we have borne the cross.

Keen was the trial once, Bitter the cup of woe, When martyred saints, baptized in blood, Christ's sufferings shared below.

Bright is their glory now, Boundless their joy above, Where, on the bosom of their God, They rest in perfect love.

Lord, may that grace be ours,
Like them in faith to bear
All that of sorrow, grief, or pain
May be our portion here.

Enough if Thou at last
The word of blessing give,
And let us rest beneath Thy feet,
Where saints and angels live.

HYMN.

For all the saints, who from their labors

Who Thee by faith before the world confessed.

Thy Name, O Jesu, be forever blest.
Alleluia.

Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress, and their Might:

Thou, I, ord, their Captain in the well-fought

Thou, in the darkness drear, the one true Light. Alleluia.

O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old, And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold.

Alleluia.

O blest Communion, fellowship divine! We feebly struggle, they in glory shine; Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine. Alleluia. And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long.

Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song, And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong. Alleluia.

The golden evening brightens in the west; Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest; Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest.

Allelnia

But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day;

The saints triumphant rise in bright array; The King of glory passes on His way.

Through earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,

From gates of pearl streams in the countless host.

Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Alleluia.

SELECTION.

(From Proper Psalms for All Saints' Day.)

Psalm i. Beatus vir, qui non abiit.

Blessed is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners, and hath not sat in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law will he exercise himself day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the waterside, that will bring forth his fruit in due season. His leaf also shall not wither; and look, whatsoever he doeth, it shall prosper.

As for the ungodly, it is not so with them; but they are like the chaff, which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgment, neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; and the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Gloria Patri.

Psalm xv. Domine, quis habitabit?

Lord, who shall dwell in thy tabernacie? or who shall rest upon thy holy hill?

Even he that leadeth an uncorrupt life, and doeth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.

He that hath used no deceit in histongue, nor done evil to his neighbor, and hath not slandered his neighbor.

He that setteth not by himself, but is lowly in his own eyes, and maketh much of them that fear the Lord.

He that sweareth unto his neighbor, and disappointeth him not, though it were to his own hindrance.

He that hath not given his money upon usury, nor taken reward against the innocent.

Whoso doeth these things shall never fail. Gloria Patri.

HYMN.

The saints of God! Their conflict past, And life's long battle won at last, No more they need the shield or sword, They cast them down before their Lord:

O happy saints! forever blest, At Jesu's feet how safe you rest!

The saints of God! Their wanderings done, No more their weary course they run, No more they faint, no more they fall, No foes oppress, no fears appal:

O happy saints! forever blest,
In that dear home how sweet you rest!

The saints of God! Life's voyage o'er, Safe landed on that blissful shore, No stormy tempests now they dread,

No roaring billows lift their head: O happy saints! forever blest, In that calm haven of your rest!

The saints of God their vigil keep, While yet their mortal bodies sleep, Till from the dust they too shall rise And soar triumphant to the skies: O happy saints! rejoice and sing: He quickly comes, your Lord and King!

- O God of saints! To Thee we cry; O Saviour! plead for us on high;
- O Holy Ghost! our guide and friend, Grant us Thy grace till life shall end; That with all saints our rest may be

In that bright Paradise with Thee!

HYMN.

"He saith, Surely, I come quickly: Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus."

The Church has waited long,
Her absent Lord to see;
And still in loneliness she waits;—
A friendless stranger she,
Age after age has gone,
Sun after sun has set,
And still in garb of widowhood
She weeps a mourner yet.
Come, then, Lord Jesus, come!

Saint after saint on earth
Has lived, and loved, and died;
And as they left us one by one,
We laid them side by side;
We laid them down to sleep,
But not in hope forlorn;
We laid them but to rest and wake
Upon the glorious morn.
Come, then, Lord Jesus, come!

We long to hear Thy voice,
To see Thee face to face,
To share Thy crown and glory then,
As now we share Thy grace.
Should not the loving Bride
The absent Bridegroom mourn?
Should she not wear the signs of grief,
Until her Lord return?
Come, then, Lord Jesus, come!

The whole creation groans,
And waits to hear that voice,
That shall restore her comeliness,
And make her wastes rejoice,
Come, Lord, and wipe away,
The curse, the sin, the stain,
And make this blighted world of ours
Thine own fair world again.
Come, then, Lord Jesus, come!

HYMN 490.

"Work your work betimes, and in his time he will give you your reward."

The world is very evil,
The times are waxing late,
Be sober and keep vigil,
The Judge is at the gate;
The Judge who comes in mercy,
The Judge who comes with might,
Who comes to end the evil,
Who comes to crown the right.

Arise, arise, good Christian,
Let right to wrong succeed;
Let penitential sorrow
To heavenly gladness lead,
To light that has no evening,
That knows nor moon nor sun,
The light so new and golden,
The light that is but one.

O home of fadeless splendour, Of flowers that fear no thorn, Where they shall dwell as children Who here as exiles mourn; 'Midst power that knows no limit, Where wisdom has no bound, The beatific vision Shall glad the saints around.

O happy, holy portion,
Refection for the blest,
True vision of true beauty,
True cure of the distrest;
Strive, man, to win that glory;
Toil, man, to gain that light;
Send hope before to grasp;
Till hope be lost in sight.

O sweet and blessed country, The home of God's elect! O sweet and blessed country, That eager hearts expect! Jesus in mercy bring us To that dear land of rest; Who art, with God the Father, And Spirit, ever blest.

ANTHEM-"Rejoice Greatly."

HYMN.

(From the Hymnal Companion to the Book of Common Prayer.)

"Ye do show the Lord's death till He come."

Till He come! O let the words Linger on the trembling chords; Let the little while between In their golden light be seen; Let us think how heaven and home Lie beyond that "Till He come."

When the weary ones we love Enter on their rest above, Seems the earth so poor and vast, All our life joy overcast? Hush, be every murmur dumb: It is only "Till he come." Clouds and conflicts round us press: Would you have one sorrow less? All the sharpness of the cross, All that tells the world is loss, Death, and darkness, and the tomb, Only whisper "Till He come."

When the feast of love is spread, Drink the wine, and break the bread: Sweet memorials,—till the Lord Call us round His heavenly board: Some from earth, from glory some, Severed only "Till He come."

Oddress.

HYMN.

(From the Hymnary.)

"But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief."

Lo, the day of Christ's appearing, Day of life, and day of light, Day when death itself shall perish, Day which ne'er shall set in night.

Steadily that day is coming,
When the just shall reign most blest,
When the wicked cease from troubling,
And the weary are at rest.

See the King desired for ages, Christ the Lord expected long: Long implored, at length He hasteth; Cometh with salvation strong.

Oh, how past all utterances happy, Sweet and joyful, will it be ! When they who, unseen, have loved Him, Jesus face to face shall see. Blessed, then, earth's patient mourners, Who for him have toiled and died; Called to share with Him His glory, With Him ever to abide.

There shall be no sighs or weeping, Not a shade of doubt or fear; No old age, nor want nor sorrow, Nothing sick or lacking there.

There the peace will be unbroken, Deep and solemn joy be shed; Youth in fadeless flower and freshness And salvation perfected.

To those realms, just Judge, oh, call us; Deign to open that blest gate; Thou, whom seeking, looking, longing, We with eager joy await.

address.

HYMN.

"Now it is high time to awake out of sleep,"

O'er the distant mountains breaking Comes the reddening dawn of day; Rise, my soul, from sleep awaking, Rise, and sing, and watch, and pray; 'Tis thy Saviour, On His bright returning way.

O Thou long-expected! weary
Waits my auxious soul for Thee,
Life is dark and earth is dreary,
Where Thy light I do not see;
O my Saviour,
When wilt Thou return to me?

Nearer is my soul's salvation; Spent the night, the day at hand; Keep me in my lowly station, Watching for Thee, till I stand, O my Saviour, In Thy bright, Thy promised land.

With my lamp well trimmed and burning, Swift to hear and slow to roam, Watching for Thy glad returning To restore me to my home, Come my Saviour, Thou hast promised: quickly come.

Oddress.

Hymn 9

"He saith, Surely I come quickly: Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesu ."

Come, quickly come dread Judge of All;
For, awful though Thine Advent be,
All shadows from the truth will fall,
And falsehood die, in sight of Thee:
Come, quickly come: for doubt and fe
Like clouds dissolve when Thou art near.

Come, quickly come, great King of all; Reign all around us, and within; Let sin no more our souls enthrall, Let pain and sorrow die with sin; Come, quickly come: for Thou alone Canst make Thy scatter'd people one. Come, quickly come, true Life of all;
The curse of death is on the ground;
On every home His shadows fall,
On every heart his mark is found:
Come, quickly come: for grief and pain
Can never cloud Thy glorious reign.

Come, quickly come, sure light of all,
For gloomy night broods o'er our way;
And fainting souls begin to fall
With weary watching for the day:
Come, quickly come: for round Thy throne
No eye is blind, no night is known.

Benediction.

Hymn 13

"The Redeemer shall come to Zion."

O come, O come, Emmanuel, And ransom captive Israel: That mourns in lonely exile here, Until the Son of God appear. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel Shall come to Thee, O Israel.

O come, Thou Rod of Jesse, free Thine own from Satan's tyranny; From depths of hell Thy people save, And give them victory o'er the grave. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel Shall come to Thee, O Israel!

O come, Thou Day-Spring, come and cheer Our spirits by Thine Advent here; Disperse the gloomy clouds of night, And death's dark shadows put to flight. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel Shall come to Thee, O Israel!

O come, Thou Key of David, come, And open wide our heavenly home; Make safe the way that leads on high, And close the path to misery. Rejoice! Rejoice Emmanuel Shall come to Thee, O Israel.

O come, O come, Thou Lord of Might! Who to Thy tribes, on Sinai's height, In ancient times didst give the law, In cloud, and majesty, and awe. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel Shall come to Thee, O Israel.

ANTHEM-" God so loved the world."

Hymn

Hark! the voice eternal, Robed in majesty, Calling into being Earth and sea and sky, Hark! in countless numbers All the angel-throng Hail creation's morning With one burst of song

Bright the world and glorious, Calm both earth and sea, Noble in its grandeur, Stood man's purity; Came the great transgression, Came the saddening fall, Death and desolation Breathing over all.

Long the nations waited,
Through the troubled night,
Looking, longing, yearning
For the promised light.
Prophets saw the morning
Breaking far away,
Minstrels sang the splendor
Of that opening day.

Brightly dawned the Advent Of the new-born King, Joyously the watchers Heard the angels sing. Sadly closed the evening Of His hallowed life, As the noontide darkness Veiled the last dread strife.

Lo! again He cometh,
Robed in clouds of light,
As the Judge eternal,
Armed with power and might,
Nations to His footstool
Gathered then shall be;
Earth shall yield her treasures,
And her dead, the sea.

Jesus! Lord and Master,
Prophet, Priest and King,
To Thy feet triumphant
Hallowed praise we bring.
Thine the pain and weeping,
Thine the victory;
Power, and praise, and honor,
Be, O Lord, to Thee.

Address.

Hymn

Jesus came; the heavens adoring:
Came with peace from realms on high;
Jesus came for man's redemption,
Lowly came on earth to die:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Came in deep humility.

Jesus comes again in mercy,
When our hearts are bowed with care;
Jesus comes in answer
To an earnest, heart-felt prayer;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Comes to save us from despair.

Jesus comes to hearts rejoicing, Bringing news of sins forgiven; Jesus comes in sounds of gladness, Leading souls redeemed to heaven; Alleluia! Alleluia! Now the gate of death is riven.

Jesus comes in joy and sorrow,
Shares alike our hopes and fears;
Jesus comes, whate'er befalls us;
Glads our hearts, and dries our tears;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Cheering e'en our failing years.

Jesus comes on clouds triumphant,
When the heavens shall pass away;
Jesus comes again in glory;
Let us then our homage pay,
Alleluia! ever singing,
Till the dawn of endless day.

Address.

Hymn

"Now it is high time to awake out of sleep."

Hark, 'tis the watchman's cry, Wake, brethren, wake; Jesus himself is nigh; Wake, brethren, wake. Sleep is for sons of night; But children of the light; Yours is the glory bright; Wake, brethren, wake.

Call to each wakening band,
Watch, brethren, watch;
Clear is our Lord's command,
Watch, brethren, watch.
Be ye as men that wait
Now at their Master's gate,
E'en though He tarry late;
Watch, brethren, watch.

Heed we the Steward's call, Work, brethren, work: There's room enough for all: Work, brethren, work. The vineyard of the Lord Sure labor will afford; He will your work reward; Work, brethren, work.

Hear we the Shepherd's voice,
Pray, brethren, pray:
Would ye His heart rejoice,
Pray, brethren, pray.
Sin calls for ceaseless fear,
Weakness the Strong One near Long as we struggle here,
Pray, brethren, pray.

Sound now the final chord,
Praise, brethren, praise:
Thrice holy is the Lord,
Praise, brethren, praise,
What more befits the tongues
Joining the angels' songs?
Whilst heaven the note prolongs,
Praise, brethren, praise.

Prayer.

"We have seen His Star in the East."

Sons of men, behold from far, Hail! the long-expected star Jacob's star that gilds the night, Guides bewilder'd nature right.

Mild it shines on all beneath, Piercing through the shades of death : Scattering error's wide-spread night, Kindling darkness into light.

Nations all, remote and near, Haste to see your God appear: Haste, for Him your hearts prepare: Meet Him manifested there.

There behold the Day-Spring rise, Pouring light upon your eyes See it chase the shades away. Shining to the perfect day.

Sing, ye morning stars, again, God descends on earth to reign, Deigns for man His life to employ; Shout, ye sons of God, for joy

Hymn 42.

"The Lord God Omnipotent reigneth."

Hark! the song of jubilee, Loud as mighty thunders roar: Or the fulness of the sea, When it breaks upon the shore. Alleluia! for the Lord God omnipotent shall reign; Alleluia! let the word Echo round the earth and main.

Alleluia! hark! the sound. From the centre to the skies. Wakes above, beneath, around, All creation's harmonies

See Jehovah's banners furl'd; Sheathed His sword; He speaks, -'tis done, And the kingdoms of this world Are the kingdoms of His Son.

He shall reign from pole to pole With illimitable sway He shall reign, when, like a scroll, Yonder heavens have pass'd away Then the end; beneath His rod, Man's last enemy shall fall: Alleluia! Christ in God. God in Christ, is all in all.

Address—The Superintendent.

Hymn 45.

"When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy."

As with gladness men of old Did the guiding star behold As with joy they hail'd its light, Leading onward, beaming bright; So, most gracious Lord, may we Evermore be led to Thee.

As with joyful steps they sped To that lowly manger-bed; There to bend the knee before Him Whom heaven and earth adore: So may we with willing feet Ever seek the mercy-seat.

As they offer'd gifts most rare At that manger rude and bare; So may we with holy joy,

Pure and free from sin's alloy. All our costliest treasures bring. Christ, to Thee, our heavenly King.

Holy Jesus! every day Keep us in the narrow way And, when earthly things are past, Bring our ransom'd souls at last Where they need no star to guide, Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

In the heavenly country bright. Need they no created light; Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown, Thou its Sun which goes not down; There for ever may we sing Alleluias to our King.

The new Prayer Book will be used for the first time in the Parish.

Hymn 34.

"All the earth shall be filled with His majesty."

Hail to the Lord's Anointed, Great David's greater Son! Hail, in the time appointed, His reign on earth begun! He comes to break oppression, To set the captive free; To take away transgression And rule in equity.

He comes with succour speedy
To those who suffer wrong.
To help the poor and needy,
And bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemn'd and dying,
Were precious in His sight.

He shall descend like showers Upon the fruitful earth; And love and joy, like flowers, Spring in His path to birth; Before Him, on the mountains, Shall peace, the herald, go; And righteousness, in fountains, From hill to valley flow.

To Him shall prayer unceasing, And daily vows ascend: His kingdom still increasing, A kingdom without end: The tide of time shall never His covenant remove; His name shall stand for ever; That Name to us is Love.

Cord's Prayer and Versieles.

Proper Psalms, 72-117-135.

First Lesson. Isaiah 49, 1-14.

Magnificat.

My soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For He hath regarded the lowliness, the lowliness of His handmaiden.

For behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

For He that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy, holy is His name.

And His mercy is on them that fear Him throughout all generations.

He liath shewed strength, shewed strength with His arm: He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat; and hath exalted the humble and meek. He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He, remembering His mercy, hath holpen His servant Israel: as He promised to our forefathers. Abraham and his seed for ever.

Gloria Patri.

Second Lesson. Luke 3, 15-23.

Benedic, Anima Mea.

Praise the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, praise His holy Name.

Praise the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits.

Who forgiveth all thy sin, and healeth all thine infirmities.

Who saveth thy life from destruction, and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness

O, praise the Lord, ye Angels of His, ye that excel in strength: ye that fulfill His commandments, and hearken unto the voice of His word.

O, praise the Lord, all ye His hosts; ye servants of His that do His pleasure.

O, speak good of the Lord, all ye works of His, in all places of His dominion; praise thou the Lord, O my soul.

Gloria Patri.

Preed, Polleets, Etc.

Anthem - Send out Thy light.

Address—The Rector.

Hymn 284.

" He shall have dominion from sea to sea."

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun Does his successive journeys run; His kingdom stretch from shore to shore, Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

To Him shall endless prayer be made, And praises throng to crown His head; His Name like sweet perfume shall rise With every morning sacrifice.

People and realms of every tongue Dwell on His love with sweetest song; And infant voices shall proclaim Their early blessings on His name.

Blessings abound where'er He reigns The prisoner leaps to burst his chains. The weary find eternal rest, And all the sons of want are blest.

Let every creature rise, and bring Peculiar honours to our King: Angels descend with songs again, And earth repeat the loud Amen.

HYMN.

O Light, Whose beams illumine all From twilight dawn to perfect day Shine Thou before the shadows fall, That lead our wandering feet astray At morn and eve Thy raidiance pour, That youth may love, and age adore.

O Way, through Whom our souls draw near To you eternal home of peace, Where perfect love shall cast out fear, And earth's vain toil and wandering cease In strength or weakness may we see Our heavenward path, O Lord, through Thee

O truth, before Whose shrine we bow Thou priceless pearl for all who seek To thee our earliest strength we vow;

Thy love will bless the pure and meek; When dreams or mists beguile our sight, Turn Thou our darkness into light.

O Life, the well that ever flows To slake the thirst of those that faint, Thy power to bless, what seraph knows?
Thy joy supreme, what words can paint?
In earth's last hour of fleeting breath Be thou our conqueror over death.

O Light, O Way, O Truth, O Life, O Jesus, born mankind to save, Give Thou Thy peace in deadliest strife; Shed Thou Thy calm on stormiest wave; Be Thou our hope, our joy, our dread Lord of the living and the dead.

From the eastern mountains Pressing on they come. Wise men in their wisdom To His humble home; Stirred by deep devotion, Hasting from afar, Ever journeying onward, Guided by a star.
Light of Light that shineth Ere the worlds began Draw Thou near, and lighten
Every heart of man.

There their Lord and Saviour Meek and lowly lay, Wondrous Light that led them Onward on their way, Ever now to lighten Nations from afar, As they journey homeward By that guiding Star. Light of Light, etc.

Thou who in a manger Once hast lowly lain, Who dost now in glory O'er all kingdoms reign, Gather in the heathen, Who in lands afar Ne'er have seen the brightness Of Thy guiding Star. Light of Light, etc.

Gather in the outcasts, All who've gone astray, Throw Thy radiance o'er them, Guide them on their way, Those who never knew Thee, Those who've wandered far, Lead them by the brightness Of Thy guiding Star. Light of Light, etc.

Onward through the darkness Of the lonely night, Shining still before them With Thy kindly light, Guide them, Jew and Gentile, Homeward from afar, Young and old together, By Thy guiding Star:— Light of Light, etc.

Until every nation, Whether bond or free, 'Neath Thy starlit banner, lesus follows Thee O'er the distant mountains To that heavenly home, Where nor sin nor sorrow Evermore shall come. Light of Light that shineth Ere the worlds began, Draw Thou near, and lighten Every heart of man.

Gloria Patri.

Psalm 34. Benedicam Dominum.

I will alway give thanks unto the Lord: his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

O praise the Lord with me: and let us magnify his Name together.

I sought the Lord, and he heard me: yea, he delivered me out of all my fear.

They had an eye unto him, and were light-ened: and their faces were not ashamed. Lo, the poor crieth, and the Lord heareth him: yea, and saveth him out of all his troubles.

The angel of the Lord tarrieth round about them that fear him: and delivereth them.

O taste, and see, how gracious the Lord is: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

O fear the Lord, ye that are his saints: for they that fear him lack nothing.

them is broken. But misfortune shall slay the ungodly: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

The Lord delivereth the souls of his serrants: and all they that put their trust in him shall not be destitute.

Gloria Patri.

Psalm 65. Te decet Hymnus.

Thou, O God, art praised in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem. Thou that hearest the prayer: unto thee shall all flesh come.

My misdeeds prevail against me: O be thou merciful unto our sins.

Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and receivest unto thee: he shall dwell in thy court, and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of thy house, even of thy holy temple. Thou shalt show us wonderful things in thy righteousness, O God of our salvation: thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remain in the broad sea.

Who in his strength setteth fast the mountains: and is girded about with power.
Who stilleth the raging of the sea: and the noise of his waves, and the madness of the people.

They also that dwell in the uttermost parts of the earth shall be afraid at thy tokens thou that makest the out-goings of the morning and evening to praise thee.

Thou visitest the earth, and blessest it thou makest it very plenteous.

The river of God is full of water: thou preparest their corn, for so thou providest for the earth.

Thou waterest her furrows; thou sendest rain into the little valleys thereof: thou makest it soft with the drops of rain, and blessest the increase of it.

Thou crownest the year with thy goodness: and thy clouds drop fatness.

They shall drop upon the dwellings of the wilderness: and the little hills shall rejoice on

The folds shall be full of sheep: the valleys also shall stand so thick with corn, that they shall laugh and sing.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: world without end

Second Lesson. Romans x.

Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, according to Thy word.

For mine eyes have seen Thy salvation. Which thou hast prepared: before the face of all people;

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be; world without end.

Creed, Collects, Etc.

HYMN.

"Saw You Never in the Twilight."

Saw you never in the twilight, When the sun has left the skies, Up in Heaven the clear stars shining Through the gloom like silver eyes? So of old the wise men watching, Saw a little stranger star, And they knew the King was given, And they followed it from far.

Heard you never of the story How they crossed the desert wild, Journeyed on by plain and mountain, Till they found the Holy Child

How they opened all their treasures, Kneeling to that infant King, Gave the gold and fragrant incense, Gave the myrrh in offering?

Know you not that lowly infant Was the Bright and Morning Star, He who came to light the Gentiles • And the darkened isles afar? And we, too, may seek His cradle. There our hearts' best treasure bring— Love and faith and true devotion, For our Saviour, God, and King

Hymn.

Lord of all power and might, Father of love and light, Speed on Thy word! Oh, let the Gospel sound All the wide world around, Wherever man is found! God speed His word!

Hail, blessed Jubilee! Thine, Lord, the glory be; Alleluia! Thine was the mighty plan; From Thee the work began; Away with praise of man! Glory to God!

Lo, what embattled foes. Stern in their hate, oppose God's holy word! One for His truth we stand Strong in His own right hand, Firm as a martyr-band:
God shield His word!

Onward shall be our course, Despite of fraud or force; God is before. His words ere long shall run Free as the noon-day sun; His purpose must be done; God bless His word!

Hymn.

Songs of thankfulness and praise, Jesus, Lord, to Thee we raise, Manifested by the star To the sages from afar; Branch of royal David's stem In Thy birth at Bethlehem; Anthems be to Thee addressed, God in Man made manifest.

Manifest at Jordan's stream, Prophet, Priest, and King supreme; And at Cana, wedding-guest, In Thy Godhead manifest; Manifest in power divine, Changing water into wine; Authems be to Thee addressed, God in Man made manifest.

Manifest in making whole Palsied limbs and fainting soul: Manifest in valiant fight, Quelling all the devil's might; Manifest in gracious will, Ever bringing good from ill; Anthems be to Thee addressed, God in Man made manifest.

Sun and moon shall darkened be, Stars shall fall, the heavens shall flee; Christ will then like lightning shine, All will see His glorious sign; All will then the trumpet hear; All will see the Judge appear; Thou by all will be confessed, God in Man made manifest;

Grant us grace to see Thee, Lord, Present in Thy holy word; May we imitate Thee now, And be pure, as pure art Thou; That we like to Thee may be At Thy great Epiphany; And may praise Thee, ever blest, God in Man made manifest.

Hymn.

Within the Father's house
The Son hath found His home;
And to His temple suddenly
The Lord of Life hath come.

The doctors of the law
Gaze on the wondrous child,
And marvel at His gracious words
Of wisdom undefiled.

Yet not to them is given
The mighty truth to know,
To lift the earthly veil which hides
Incarnate God below.

The secret of the Lord Escapes each human eye, And faithful pondering hearts await The full Epiphany.

Lord, visit Thou our souls
And teach us by Thy grace,
Each dim revealing of Thyself
With loving awe to trace;

Till from our darkened sight
The cloud shall pass away,
And on the cleansed soul shall burst
The everlasting day.

address.

Hymn.

O one with God the Father In majesty and might, The brightness of His glory, Eternal Light of Light; O'er this our home of darkness Thy rays are streaming now; The shadows flee before Thee, The world's true Light art Thou.

Yet, Lord, we see but darkly: O heavenly Light, arise! Dispel these mists that shroud us, And hide Thee from our eyes! We long to track the footprints That Thou Thyself hast trod: We long to see the pathway That leads to Thee our God.

O Jesus, shine around us
With radiance of Thy grace;
O Jesus, turn upon us
The brightness of Thy face.
We need no star to guide us,
As on our way we press,
If Thou Thy light vouchsafest,
O Sun of Righteousness.

address.

Hymn.

Fierce was the storm of wind, The surging waves ran high, Failed the disciples' hearts with fear, Though Thou, their Lord, wast nigh.

But at the stern rebuke Of Thy almighty word, The wind was hushed, the billows ceased, And owned Thee God and Lord.

So, now, when depths of sin Our souls with terrors fill, Arise, and be our helper, Lord, And speak Thy "Peace, be still." When death's dark sea we cross, Be with us in Thy power, Nor let the water-floods prevail In that dread trial-hour.

And, when amid the signs, Which speak Thine Advent near, The roaring of the sea and waves Fills faithless hearts with fear;

May we all undismayed The raging temptest see, Lift up our heads and hail with joy Thy great Epiphany.

PRAYER.

HYMN.

Tarry with me, O my Saviour!
For the day is passing by;
See! the shades of evening gather,
And the night is drawing nigh.

Deeper, deeper grow the shadows, Paler now the glowing west, Swift the night of death advances; Shall it be the night of rest?

Lonely seems the vale of shadow; Sinks my heart with troubled fear; Give me faith for clearer vision, Speak Thou, Lord, in words of cheer. Let me hear Thy voice behind me, Calming all these wild alarms; Let me, underneath my weakness, Feel the everlasting arms.

Feeble, trembling, fainting, dying, Lord, I cast myself on Thee; Tarry with me through the darkness; While I sleep, still watch by me.

Tarry with me, O my Saviour!

Lay my head upon Thy breast
Till the morning; then awake me!

Morning of eternal rest

HYMN.

At even, ere the sun was set,
The sick, O Lord, around Thee lay;
Oh, in what divers pains they met!
Oh, with what joy they went away!

Once more 'tis eventide, and we Oppressed with various ills draw near; What if Thy form we cannot see? We know and feel that Thou art here.

O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel; For some are sick, and some are sad, And some have never loved Thee well, And some have lost the love they had.

And some have found the world is vain, Yet from the world they break not free; And some have friends who give them pain, Yet have not sought a friend in Thee.

And none, O Lord, have perfect rest, For none are wholly free from sin; And they who fain would love Thee best Are conscious most of wrong within.

O Saviour Christ, Thou too art man; Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried; Thy kind but searching glance can scan The very wounds that shame would hide.

Thy touch has still its ancient power; No word from Thee can fruitless fall; Hear, in this solemn evening hour, And in Thy mercy heal us all.

HYMN.

O Jesus, I have promised
To serve Thee to the end;
Be Thou for ever near me,
My Master and my Friend!
I shall not fear the battle
If Thou art by my side,
Nor wander from the pathway
If Thou wit be my guide.

Oh, let me feel Thee near me!
The world is ever near;
I see the sights that dazzle,
The tempting sounds I hear;
My foes are ever near me,
Around me and within;
But, Jesus, draw Thou nearer,
And shield my soul from sin.

Oh, let me hear Thee speaking In accents clear and still, Above the storms of passion, The murmurs of self-will! Oh, speak to re-assure me, To hasten or control! Oh, speak, and make me listen, Thou guardian of my soul!

O Jesus, Thou hast promised To all who follow Thee, That where Thou art in glory There shall Thy servant be; And, Jesus, I have promised To serve Thee to the end; Oh, give me grace to follow, My Master and my Friend!

Oh, let me see Thy foot-marks,
And in them plant my own!
My hope to follow duly
Is in Thy strength alone.
Oh, guide me, call me, draw me,
Uphold me to the end!
At last in heaven receive me,
My Saviour and my Friend!

ADDRESS.

HYMN.

What time the evening shadows fall Around the Church on earth, When darker forms of doubt appall, And new false lights have birth; Then closer should her faithful band For truth together hold, Hell's last devices to withstand, And safely guard her fold

O Father, in that hour of fear,
Fail not Thy Church to keep,
Thy altar to the last to rear,
And feed Thy fainting sheep:
May she the holy truths attest,
Apostles taught of yore,
Nor quit the faith by saints confest,
But love it more and more.

O Christ, Who for Thy flock didst pray,
That all might be as one,
Unite us all ere fades the day,
Thou sole-begotten Son;
The East, the West, together bind
In love's unbroken chain;
Give each one hope, one heart, one mind,
One glory, and one gain.

O Spirit, Lord of light and life,
The Church with strength renew,
Compose the angry voice of strife,
All jealousies subdue:
Do Thou in ever-quickening streams
Upon Thy saints descend,
And warm them with reviving beams,
And guide them to the end.

ADDRESS.

HYMN.

Sing, ye faithful! sing with gladness!
Wake your noblest, sweetest strain!
With the praises of your Saviour
Let His house resound again!
Him let all your music honor,
And your songs exalt His reign!

Sing how He came forth from heaven, Bowed Himself to Bethlehem's cave, Stooped to wear the servant's vesture, Bore the pain, the cross, the grave, Passed within the gates of darkness, Thence His banished one's to save!

So He tasted death for all men, He of all mankind the Head, Sinless One among the sinful, Prince of life among the dead; So He wrought the full redemption, And the captor captive led.

Now on high, yet ever with us,
From His Father's throne, the Son
Rules and guides the world He ransomed,
Till the appointed work be done,
Till He see, renewed and perfect,
All things gathered into one.

Day of promised restitution!
Fruit of all His sorrows past!
When the crown of His dominions
He before the throne shall cast,
And throughout the wide creation
God be "all in all" at last.

HVMN.

Hear our prayer, O Heavenly Father, Ere we lay us down to sleep; Bid Thine angels, pure and holy, Round our bed their vigils keep.

Heavy though our sins, Thy mercy
Far outweighs them every one,
Down before the cross we cast them,
Trusting in Thy help alone.

Keep us through this night of peril Safe beneath its sheltering shade; Take us to Thy rest, we pray Thee, When our pilgrimage is made.

None can measure out Thy patience By the span of human thought; None can bound the tender mercies Which Thy holy Son has bought.

Pardon all our past transgressions,
Give us strength for days to come;
Guide and Guard us with Thy blessing
Till Thine angels bear us home.

HYMN.

Jesus, Lord of life and glory,
Bend from heaven Thy gracious ear;
While our waiting souls adore Thee,
Friend of helpless sinners, hear:
By Thy mercy,
Oh, deliver us, good Lord.

From the depths of nature's blindness,
From the hardening power of sin,
From all malice and unkindness,
From the pride that lurks within,
By Thy mercy,
Oh, deliver us, good Lord.

When temptation sorely presses, In the day of Satan's power, In our times of deep distresses, In each dark and trying hour, By Thy mercy, Oh, deliver us, good Lord. When the world around is smiling,
In the time of wealth and ease,
Earthly joys our hearts beguiling,
In the day of health and peace,
By Thy mercy,
Oh, deliver us, good Lord.

In the weary hours of sickness,
In the times of grief and pain,
When we feel our mortal weakness,
When all human help is vain,
By Thy mercy,
Oh, deliver us, good Lord.

In the solemn hour of dying,
In the awful judgment day,
May our souls, on Thee relying,
Find Thee still our hope and stay:
By Thy mercy,
Oh, deliver us, good Lord.

ANTHEM, O Lord, my trust is in Thy Merey.

HYMN.

Only one prayer to-day,
One earnest, tearful plea;
A litany from out the heart,
Have mercy, Lord, on me.

Although my sin is great, Still to my God I flee: Yes, I can dare look up, and say, "Have mercy, Lord, on me"

Because of Jesus' cross, And that unfathomed sea, The crimson tide which laves the world, Have mercy, Lord, on me.

No other Name than His, My hope, my help may be: Oh, by that one all-saving Name, Have mercy, Lord, on me.

In garb of sorrow clad
I crave Thy pardon free;
In life to die, in death to live;
Have mercy, Lord, on me.

ADDRESS.

HYMN.

To-day Thy mercy calls us
To wash away our sin,
However great our trespass,
Whatever we have been;
However long from mercy
Our hearts have turned away,
Thy precious blood can cleanse us,
And make us white to-day.

To-day Thy gate is open,
And all who enter in Shall find a Father's welcome,
And pardon for their sin.
The past shall be forgotten,
A present joy be given,
A future grace be promised,
A glorious crown in heaven.

To-day our Father calls us,
His Holy Spirit waits;
His blessed angels gather
Around the heavenly gates:
No question will be asked us
How often we have come;
Although we oft have wandered,
It is our Father's home.

Oh, all-embracing mercy!
Oh, ever-open door!
What should we do without Thee When heart and eyes run o'er?
When all things seem against us,
To drive us to despair,
We know one gate is open,
One ear will hear our prayer.

ADDRESS.

HYMN.

Heal me, O my Saviour, heal; Heal me as I suppliant kneel; Heal me, and my pardon seal, For Thy mercies' sake.

Fresh the wounds that sin hath made: Hear the prayers I oft have prayed, And in love send Thou me aid, For Thy mercies' sake.

Helpless, none can help me now; Cheerless, none can cheer but Thou; Suppliant, Lord, to Thee I bow, For Thy mercies' sake. Thou the true Physician art;
Thou, O Christ, canst health impart,
Binding up the bleeding heart,
For Thy mercies' sake.

Other comforters are gone; Thou canst heal, and Thou alone, Thou for all my sin atone, For Thy mercies' sake.

Heal me, then, my Saviour, heal; Heal me, as I suppliant kneel; To Thee do I now appeal, For Thy mercies' sake.

HYMN.

- Lord, speak to me, that I may speak In living echoes of Thy tone;
- As thou hast sought, so let me seek Thy erring children, lost and lone.
- O lead me, Lord, that I may lead The wandering and the wavering feet;
- O feed me, Lord, that I may feed Thy hungering ones with manna sweet.
- O strengthen me, that while I stand Firm on the Rock and strong in Thee,
- I may stretch out a loving hand To wrestlers with the troubled sea.
- O teach me, Lord, that I may teach The precious things Thou dost impart;

- And wing my words, that they may reach
  The hidden depths of many a heart.
- O give Thine own sweet rest to me, That I may speak with soothing power
- A word in season, as from Thee, To weary ones in needful hour.
- O fill me with Thy fulness, Lord, Until my very heart o'erflow
- In kindling thought and glowing word, Thy love to tell, Thy praise to show.
- O use me, Lord, use even me,
  Just as Thou wilt, and when, and where;
  Until Thy blessed Face I see,
  Thy rest, Thy joy, Thy glory share.

HYMN.

More love to Thee, O Christ!
More love to Thee!
Hear Thou the prayer I make
On bended knee;
This is my earnest plea,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

Once earthly joy I craved, Sought peace and rest; Now Thee alone I seek; Give what is best: This all my prayer shall be, More love, O Christ, to Thee! More love to Thee! Let sorrow do its work, Send grief and pain; Sweet are Thy messengers, Sweet their refrain, When they can sing with me, More love, O Christ, to Thee, More love to Thee.

Then shall my latest breath Whisper Thy praise; This be the parting cry My heart shall raise, This still its prayer shall be, More love, O Christ, to Thee, More love to Thee!

OFFERTORY.

ANTHEM, Jesus lover of my Soul.

HVMN.

Hark, my soul! it is the Lord; 'Tis thy Saviour, hear His word; Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee, Speaks to each one, "Lov'st Thou Me?"

He delivered thee when bound, And when wounded, healed thy wound; Sought thee wandering, set thee right, Turned thy darkness into light.

Can a woman's tender care Cease towards the child she bare? Yes, she may forgetful be; Yet will He remember thee. His is an unchanging love, Higher than the heights above, Deeper than the depths beneath, Free and faithful, strong as death.

We shall see His glory soon, When the work of grace is done; Partners of His throne shall be; Hear Him asking, "Lov'st thou Me?"

Lord, it is my chief complaint That my love is weak and faint; Yet I love Thee and adore; Oh, for grace to love Thee more!

ADDRESS.

HYMN.

"Come unto Me, ye weary,
And I will give you rest."
Oh, blessed voice of Jesus,
Which comes to hearts opprest!
It tells of benediction,
Of pardon, grace, and peace,
Of joy that hath no ending,
Of love that cannot cease.

"Come unto Me, ye wanderers, And I will give you light." Oh, loving voice of Jesus, Which comes to cheer the night! Our hearts were filled with sadness, And we had lost our way, But He has brought us gladness, And songs at break of day. "Come unto Me, ye fainting, And I will give you life."
Oh, cheering voice of Jesus, Which comes to aid our strife!
The foe is stern and eager, The fight is fierce and long;
But Thou hast made us mighty, And stronger than the strong.

"And whosoever cometh,
I will not cast him out."
Oh, welcome voice of Jesus,
Which drives away our doubt!
Which calls us, very sinners,
Unworthy though we be
Of love so free and boundless,
To come, O Lord, to Thee,

ADDRESS.

HYMN.

Jesus, Thy boundless love to me
No thought can reach, no tongue declare;
Oh, knit my thankful heart to Thee,
And reign without a rival there!
Thine wholly, Thine alone, I am;
Be Thou alone my constant flame.

Oh, grant that nothing in my soul
May dwell, but Thy pure love alone!
Oh, may Thy love possess me whole,
My joy, my treasure, and my crown!
Strange flames far from my heart remove;
May ever act, word, thought, be love!

O love, how cheering is thy ray! All pain before thy presence flies: Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away, Where'er thy healing beams arise. O Jesus, nothing may I see, Nothing desire or seek, but Thee!

Still let Thy love point out my way!
What wondrous things Thy love hath wrought!
Still lead me, lest I go astray;
Direct my word, inspire my thought;
And if I fall, soon may I hear
Thy voice, and know that love is near.

In suffering, be Thy love and peace:
In weakness, be Thy love my power;
And when the storms of life shall cease,
Jesus, in that dark, final hour
Of death, be Thou my guide and friend,
That I may love Thee without end.

Come, ye faithful, raise the strain
Of triumphant gladness;
God hath brought His Israel
Into joy from sadness;
Loosed from Pharoah's bitter yoke
Jacob's sons and daughters;
Led them with unmoistened foot
Through the Red Sea waters,

'Tis the spring of souls to-day; Christ hath burst His prison, And from three days' sleep in death As a sun hath risen; All the winter of our sins, Long and dark, is flying From His light, to Whom we give Laud and praise undying. Now the Queen of seasons, bright With the day of splendor, With the royal feast of feasts, Comes its joy to render; Comes to glad Jerusalem, Who with true affection Welcomes in unwearied strains Jesu's resourcetion

Neither might the gates of death, Nor the tomb's dark portal, Nor the watchers, nor the seal, Hold Thee as a mortal: But to-day amidst Thine own Thou didst stand, bestowing That Thy peace which evermore Passeth human knowing.

Hymn.

Ten thousand times ten thousand In sparkling raiment bright, The armies of the ransomed saints Throng up the steeps of light: "Tis finished! all is finished, Their fight with death and sin. Fling open wide the golden gates, And let the victors in.

What rush of Alleluias
Fills all the earth and sky!
What ringing of a thousand harps
Bespeaks the triumph nigh!
O day, for which creation
And all its tribes were made!
O joy, for all its former woes
A thousand-fold repaid!

Oh, then what raptured greetings On Canaan's happy shore! What knitting severed friendships up, Where partings are no more! Then eyes with joy shall sparkle That brimmed with tears of late; Orphans no longer fatherless, Nor widows desolate.

Bring near Thy great salvation,
Thou Lamb for sinners slain;
Fill up the roll of Thine elect,
Then take Thy power and reign!
Appear, Desire of nations!
Thine exiles long for home:
Show in the heavens Thy promised sign!
Thou Prince and Saviour, come!

Address.

Hymn.

Light's abode, celestial Salem,
Vision whence true peace doth spring,
Brighter than the heart can fancy,
Mansion of the highest King;
Oh, how glorious are the praises
Which of Thee the prophets sing!

There forever and forever Alleluia is outpoured; For unending, for unbroken Is the feast-day of the Lord; All is pure and all is holy That within Thy walls is stored.

There no cloud nor passing vapor Dims the brightness of the air; Endless noon-day, glorious noon-day, From the Sun of suns is there; There no night brings rest from labor. For unknown are toil and care.

Oh, how glorious and resplendent, Fragile body, shalt thou be. When endued with so much beauty. Full of health, and strong, and free, Full of vigor, full of pleasure That shall last eternally!

Now with gladness, now with courage, Bear the burden on thee laid, That hereafter these thy labors May with endless gifts be paid, And in everlasting glory Thou with brightness be arrayed.

Hymn 22.

"Behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven; and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it."

It came upon the midnight clear, That glorious song of old, From angels bending near the earth To touch their harps of gold; Peace on the earth, good will to men, From heaven's all-gracious King; The world in solemn stillness lay To hear the angels sing.

Still through the cloven skies they come, With peaceful wings unfurl'd; And still their heavenly music floats O'er all the weary world: Above its sad and lowly plains They bend on hovering wing, And ever o'er its Babel sounds The blessed angels sing.

O ye beneath life's crushing load, Whose forms are bending low, Who toil along the climbing way With painful steps and slow Look now, for glad and golden hours Come swiftly on the wing: O rest beside the weary road And hear the angels sing.

For lo, the days are hastening on, By prophets seen of old, When with the ever-circling years Shall come the time foretold, When the new heaven and earth shall own The Prince of Peace their King. And the whole world send back the song Which now the angels sing.

There is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign
Eternal day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.

There everlasting spring abides, And never-fading flowers; Death, like a narrow sea, divides This heavenly land from ours.

Bright fields beyond the swelling flood Stand dressed in living green; So to the Jews fair Canaan stood, "While Jordan rolled between. But timorous mortals start and shrink To cross the narrow sea; And linger, trembling on the brink, And fear to launch away.

Oh, could we make our doubts remove, Those gloomy doubts that rise, And see the Canaan that we love, With faith's illumined eyes;

Could we but climb where Moses stood, And view the landscape o'er, Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood, Should fright us from the shore.

I heard a sound of voices
Around the great white throne,
With harpers harping on their harps
To him that sat thereon:
"Salvation, glory, honor!"
I heard the song arise,
As through the courts of heaven it rolled
In wondrous harmonies,

From every clime and kindred,
And nations from afar,
As serried ranks returning home
In triumph from a war.
I heard the saints upraising,
The myriad hosts among,
In praise of Him who died and lives,
Their one glad triumph-song.

I saw the holy city,
The New Jerusalem,
Come down from heaven, a bride adorned
With jewelled diadem;
The flood of crystal waters
Flowed down the golden street;
And nations brought their honors there,
And laid them at her feet.

And there no sun was needed.
Nor moon to shine by night,
God's glory did enlighten all,
The Lamb Himself, the light;
And there His servants serve Him,
And life's long battle o'er,
Enthroned with Him, their Saviour, King,
They reign forevermore.

O great and glorious vision!
The Lamb upon His throne;
O wondrous sight for man to see!
The Saviour with His own:
To drink the living waters
And stand upon the shore,
Where neither sorrow, sin, nor death
Shall ever enter more.

O Lamb of God who reignest!
Thou Bright and Morning Star,
Whose glory lightens that new earth
Which now we see from far!
O worthy Judge eternal!
When Thou dost bid us come,
Then open wide the gates of pearl,
And call Thy servants home.

(FROM PROPER PSALMS FOR ALL SAINTS' DAY)

Psalm I. Beatus vir qui non abiit

Blessed is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners, and hath not sat in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law will be exercise himself day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the waterside, that will bring forth his fruit in due season.

His leaf also shall not wither; and look, whatsoever he doeth, it shall prosper.

As for the ungodly, it is not so with them; but they are like the chaff, which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgment, neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; and the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Gloria Patri.

Psalm XV. Domine, quis habitabit?

Lord, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle? or who shall rest upon thy holy hill?

Even he that leadeth an uncorrupt life, and doeth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.

He that hath used no deceit in his tongue, nor done evil to his neighbor, and hath not slandered his neighbor.

He that setteth not by himself, but is lowly in his own eyes, and maketh much of them that fear the Lord.

He that sweareth unto his neighbor, and disappointeth him not, though it were to his own hindrance,

He that hath not given his money upon usury, nor taken reward against the innocent,

Whoso doeth these things shall never fail. Gloria Patri.

Bymn 175

The saints of God! Their conflict past, And life's long battle won at last, No more they need the shield or sword, They cast them down before their Lord: O happy saints! forever blest, At Jesus' feet how safe you rest!

The saints of God! Their wanderings done, No more their weary course they run, No more they faint, no more they fail, No foes oppress, no fears appall:

O happy saints! forever blest,
In that dear home how sweet your rest!

The saints of God! Life's voyage o'er, Safe landed on that blissful shore, No stormy tempests now they dread,

No roaring billows lift their head: O happy saints! forever blest, In that calm haven of your rest!

The saints of God their vigil keep,
While yet their mortal bodies sleep,
Till from the dust they too shall rise
And soar triumphant to the skies:
O happy saints! rejoice and sing:
He quickly comes, your Lord and King!

O God of saints! To Thee we cry;
O Saviour! plead for us on high;
O Holy Ghost! our guide and friend,
Grant us Thy grace till life shall end;
That with all saints our rest may be
In that bright Paradise with Thee!

THE audience will kindly understand, owing to the fact that this is a consecrated building, that no applause will be permitted.

CHORUS

No sacrifice of blood we offer Thee,
No seethed kid upon Thy altar place;
But golden grain and ruddy fruit from tree,
And fragrant herbs and odorous flowers shall grace
Thy house which Christ hath sanctified,
Thy church for which the Lamb of God hath died,
The fullness of the earth, O Lord, is Thine:
Accept the gifts we lay upon Thy shrine,

HYMN 657 When all Thy mercies, O my God,

My rising soul surveys, Transported with the view, I'm lost In wonder, love, and praise. Oh, how shall words with equal warmth The gratitude declare,
That glows within my ravished heart?
But Thou canst read it there. Ten thousand thousand precious gifts My daily thanks employ; Nor is the least a cheerful heart, That tastes those gifts with joy Through every period of my life Thy goodness I'll pursue; And after death, in distant worlds, The glorious theme renew. When nature fails, and day and night Divide Thy works no more, My ever grateful heart, O Lord, Thy mercy shall adore. Through all eternity, to Thee A joyful song I'll raise; But oh, eternity's too short To utter all Thy praise !- Amen.

RECITATIVE

"Young men and maidens, old men and children, let them praise the name of the Lord; for His name only is excellent, and His praise above heaven and earth."

CHANT OF YOUNG MEN

With faith, O Lord, in Thee
We sowed the seeds in spring;
With hope, O Lord, in Thee
We watched them ripening,
In faith, O Lord, we reaped,
Toiling from morn till even;
And in the garners heaped
What Thy great love hath given.

HYMN 192

Praise to God, immortal praise For the love that crowns our days Bounteous source of every joy, Let Thy praise our tongues employ All to Thee, our God, we owe, Source whence all our blessings flow. All the plenty summer pours : Autumn's rich o'erflowing stores Flocks that whiten all the plain Yellow sheaves of ripening grain Lord, for these our souls shall raise Grateful vows and solemn praise. Peace, prosperity, and health, Private bliss, and public wealth, Knowledge with its gladdening streams Pure religion's holier beams; Lord, for these our souls shall raise Grateful vows and solemn praise. As Thy prospering hand hath blest, May we give Thee of our best: And by deeds of kindly love For Thy mercies grateful prove; Singing thus through all our days, Praise to God, immortal praise.—Amen.

RECITATIVE

"O all ye green things of the earth, bless ye the Lord, praise Him and magnify Him for ever! Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings Thou hast perfected praise."

CHANT OF MAIDENS AND CHILDREN

The flowers that are fairest in beauty and bloom, The flowers that are rarest in hue and perfume, From the field and the garden we bring here to-day In their bloom and their beauty with praises to lay.

Lilies as pure and as white as the snow; "Consider the lilies," said Christ, "how they grow. Not Solomon's self on his throne could compare, In his glory arrayed, with those lilies so fair."

Roses, the song-theme of poet and seer, In their richness and brightness we offer up here, Types of the love of the bride and bridegroom, Whose coming the desert as roses made bloom.

Then be not o'er-careful for raiment or food, For God shall supply what is needful and good, Who clotheth the field with its herbage and flowers And blesseth the earth with His sunshine and showers.

HYMN

We plough the fields and scatter. The good seed on the land, But it is fed and watered. By God's almighty hand; He sends the snow in winter. The warmth to swell the grain, The breezes, and the sunshine, And soft refreshing rain.

All good gifts around us
Are sent from heaven above,
Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord,
For all His love.

He only is the Maker
Of all things near and far;
He paints the wayside flower,
He lights the evening star.
The winds and waves obey Him,
By Him the birds are fed;
Much more to us, His children,
He gives our daily bread.

All good gifts around us Are sent from heaven above, Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord, For all His love.

We thank Thee, then, O Father,
For all things bright and good,
The seed-time and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food;
Accept the gifts we offer
For all Thy love imparts,
And what thou most desirest,
Our humble, thankful hearts.

All good gifts around us
Are sent from heaven above,
Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord,
For all His love.—Amen.

RECITATIVE

"While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease."

CHANT OF OLD MEN

While the earth remaineth, So the Lord ordaineth, Seed-time, harvest, heat and cold, Spring, summer, winter as of old Shall return and never cease, And still the earth shall yield her fruits' increase.

So hath it been from time of yore,
So shall it be for evermore.
As our fathers did, we do,
So shall our children's children, too,
Plough and sow, and reap secure,
And praise the Lord, whose mercy doth endure.
Halleniah! Amen.

HYMN 516

Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!
Christ the royal Master
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, His banners go.
Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!

At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee;
On, then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory!
Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise!
Onward, etc.

Like a mighty army
Moves the Church of God;
Brothers, we are treading
Where the saints have trod

We are not divided, All one Body we, One in hope and doctrine, One in charity. Onward, etc.

Crowns and thrones may perish Kingdoms rise and wane. But the Church of Jesus Constant will remain; Gates of hell can never 'Gainst that Church prevail; We have Christ's own promise, And that cannot fail. Onward, etc.

Onward, then, ye people!
Join our happy throng!
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph song!
Glory, laud, and honor,
Unto Christ the King;
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing,
Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!—Amen,

GENERAL CONFESSION, DECLARATION OF ABSOLUTION, LORD'S PRAYER AND VERSICLES

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.

He shall feed me in a green pasture: and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

He shall convert my soul: and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me: thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

But thy loving kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.—Gloria Patri.

PSALM 34

I will always give thanks unto the Lord : his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

O praise the Lord with me : and let us magnify his Name together.

I sought the Lord, and he heard me: yea, he delivered me out of all my fear.

They had an eye unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

Lo, the poor crieth, and the Lord heareth him: yea, and saveth him out of all his troubles.

The angel of the Lord tarrieth round about them that fear him: and delivereth them.

O taste, and see, how gracious the Lord is : blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

O fear the Lord, ye that are his saints: for they that fear him lack nothing.

The lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they who seek the Lord shall want no manner of thing that is good.

But misfortune shall slay the ungodly: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

The Lord delivereth the souls of his servants: and all they that put their trust in him shall not be destitute.—Glovia Patri.

PSALM 65

Thou, O God, art praised in Sion; and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem.

Thou that hearest the prayer: unto thee shall all flesh come.

My misdeeds prevail against me : O be thou merciful unto our sins.

Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and receivest unto thee: he shall dwell in thy court, and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

Thou shalt show us wonderful things in thy righteousness, O God of our salvation; thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remain in the broad sea.

Who in his strength setteth fast the mountains; and is girded about with power.

Who stilleth the raging of the sea: and the noise of his waves, and the madness of the people.

They also that dwell in the uttermost parts of the earth shall be afraid of thy tokens: thou that makest the out-goings of the morning and evening to praise thee.

Thou visitest the earth, and blessest it: thou makest it very plenteous.

The river of God is full of water: thou preparest their corn, for so thou providest for the earth.

Thou waterest her furrows; thou sendest rain into the little valleys thereof; thou makest it soft with the drops of rain, and blessest the increase of it.

Thou crownest the year with thy goodness: and thy clouds drop fatness.

They shall drop upon the dwellings of the wilderness: and the little hills shall rejoice on every side.

The folds shall be full of sheep: the valleys also shall stand so thick with corn, that they shall laugh and sing,—Gloria Patri.

FIRST LESSON-PROVERBS II

CANTATE DOMINO

O sing unto the Lord a new song : for he hath done marvellous things.

With his own right hand, and with his holy arm: hath he gotton himself the victory.

The Lord declared his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the heathen.

He hath remembered his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel: and all the ends of the world have seen the salvation of our God.

Show yourselves joyful unto the Lord, all ye lands: sing, rejoice, and give thanks.

Praise the Lord upon the harp; sing to the harp with a psalm of thanksgiving.

With trumpets also and shawms: O show yourselves joyful before the Lord, the King.

Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is: the round world, and they that dwell therein.

Let the floods clap their hands, and let the hills be joyful together before the Lord; for he cometh to judge the earth.

With righteousness shall he judge the world: and the people with equity.—Gloria Patri.

That thy way may be known upon earth: thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people praise thee, O God; yea, let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations rejoice and be glad; for thou shalt

Jerusalem, the golden! With milk and honey blest; Beneath thy contemplation Sink heart and voice opprest. I know not, oli, I know not. What joys await us there! What radiancy of Glory! What bliss beyond compare!

They stand, those halls of Sion, All jubilant with song, And bright with many an angel, And all the marter throng. The Prince is ever in them. The daylight is serene: The pastures of the blessed Are decked in glorious sheen.

There is the throne of David; And there from care released. The shout of them that triumph, The song of them that feast. And they, who with their Leader, Have conquered in the fight, Forever and forever Are clad in robes of white.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest—Amen.

HARVEST CANTATA

Words by John Francis Waller, LL.D.

Music by G. Garrett, M.A., Mus. D.

The Congregation is requested to join in the Singing of the Hymns.

RECITATIVE

"And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, even of the first fruits of wheat harvest. After thou hast gathered in from thy threshing-floor, and thou shalt rejoice in thy feast."

CHORUS

Come, let us keep our harvest feast
With thanksgiving of the best
As our hrst fruits unto God.
That which in the field we'd sown
In the spring time, when the sod
Our ploughs upturned, has waxed and grown
In the sunshine and the rain,
From tender blade to ripened grain;
And we have reaped, and we have stored
So let us give unto the Lord,
That all our labors so hath blessed,
A thankful offering of the best.

HYMN 193

Come, ye thankful people, come Raise the song of harvest-home; All is safely gathered in, Ere the winter storms begin. God our Maker doth provide For our wants to be supplied, Come to God's own temple, come, Raise the song of harvest-home.

All the world is God's own field, Fruit unto his His praise to yield, Wheat and tares together sown. Unto joy or sorrow grown: First the blade, and then the ear, Then the full corn shall appear: Grant, O harvest Lord, that we Wholesome grain and pure may be.

For the Lord our God shall come, And shall take His harvest home From His field shall in that day All offences purge away: Give His angels charge at last In the fire the tares to cast; But the fruitful ears to store In His garner evermore.

Even so, Lord, quickly come, Eo thy final harvest-home; Gather Thou Thy people in, Free from sorrow, free from sin, There for ever purified, In Thy presence to abide; Come, with all Thine angels, come; Raise the glorious harvest-home.—Amen.

Hymn 323

Hail to the Lord's Anointed Great David's greater Son Hail, in the time appointed, His reign on earth begun He comes to break oppression, To set the captive free: To take away transgression, And rule in equity.

He comes with succor speedy To those who suffer wrong, To help the poor and needy, And bid the weak be strong: To give them songs for sighing, Their darkness turn to light, Whose souls, condemned and dying, Were precious in His sight.

He shall come down like showers Upon the fruitful earth, And love, joy, hope, like flowers, Spring in His path to birth :

Before Him on the mountains Shall peace, the herald, go; And righteousness in fountains From hill to valley flow.

Kings shall bow down before Him, And gold and incense bring; All nations shall adore Him, His praise all people sing To Him shall prayer unceasing And daily vows ascend; His kingdom still increasing, A kingdom without end.

O'er every foe victorious. He on His throne shall rest; From age to age more glorious, All-blessing and all-blest; The tide of time shall never His covenant remove; His Name shall stand forever, His changeless Name of Love.

Omnipotent reigneth.

The kingdom of this world has become the kingdom of our Lord, and of His Christ; and He shall reign for ever and

KING OF KINGS, LORD OF LORDS.

Hymn 450

All hail the power of Jesus' Name! Let angels prostrate fall; Bring forth the royal diadem, And crown Him Lord of all!

Crown Him, ye martyrs of our God, Who from His altar call: Extol the Stem of Jesse's rod. And crown Him Lord of all!

Hail Him, the Heir of David's line. Whom David, Lord did call: The God incarnate! Man divine! And crown Him Lord of all!

Ye seed of Israel's chosen race, Ye ransomed of the fall, Hail Him Who saves you by His grace, And crown Him Lord of all!

Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget The wormwood and the gall, Go, spread your trophies at His feet, And crown Him Lord of all!

Let every kindred, every tribe, Before Him prostrate fail! To Him all majesty ascribe, And crown Him Lord of all!

Hymn 65

As with gladness men of old Did the guiding star behold; As with joy they hailed its light; Leading onward, beaming bright; So, most gracious Lord, may we Evermore be led to Thee.

As with joyful steps they sped To that lowly manger-bed; There to bend the knee before Him Whom heaven and earth adore; So may we with willing feet Ever seek the mercy-seat.

As they offered gifts most rare At that manger rude and bare; So may we with holy joy, Pure and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ! to Thee our heavenly King.

Holy Jesus! every day Keep us in the narrow way; And, when earthly things are past, Bring our ransomed souls at last Where they need no star to guide, Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

In the heavenly country bright, Need they no created light; Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown, Thou its Sun which goes not down; There forever may we sing Alleluias to our King.

HYMN 678

There is a land of pure delight, Where saints immortal reign; Eternal day excludes the night, And pleasures banish pain.

There everlasting spring abides, And never-fading flowers; Death, like a narrow sea, divides This heavenly land from ours.

Bright fields beyond the swelling flood Stand dressed in living green; So to the Jews fair Canaan stood, While Jordan rolled between. But timorous mortals start and shrink To cross the narrow sea; And linger, trembling on the brink, And fear to launch away.

Oh, could we make our doubts remove Those gloomy doubts that rise, And see the Canaan that we love, With faith's illumined eyes:

Could we but climb where Moses stood, And view the landscape o'er, Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold ilood, Should fright us from the shore.

Amen.

HYMN 404

I heard a sound of voices
Around the great white throne,
With harpers harping on their harps
To him that sat thereon:
"Salvation, glory, honor!"
I heard the song arise,
As through the courts of heaven it rolle

As through the courts of heaven it rolled In wondrous harmonies.

From every clime and kindred,

And nations from afar,
As serried ranks returning home,
In triumph from a war.
I heard the saints upraising,
The myriad hosts among,

In praise of Him who died and lives, Their one glad triumph-song.

And laid them at her feet.

I saw the holy city,
The New Jerusalem,
Come down from heaven, a bride adorned
With jewelled diadem;
The flood of crystal waters
Flowed down the golden street;
And nations brought their honors there,

And there no sun was needed,
Nor moon to shine by night,
God's glory did enlighten all,
The Lamb Himself, the light;
And there His servants serve Him,
And life's long battle o'er,
Enthroned with Him, their Saviour, King,
They reign forevermore.

O great and glorious vision!
The Lamb upon His throne;
O wondrous sight for man to see!
The Saviour with His own:
To drink the living waters
And stand upon the shore,
Where neither sorrow, sin, nor death
Shall ever enter more.

O Lamb of God who reignest!
Thou Bright and Morning Star,
Whose glory lightens that new earth
Which now we see from far!
O worthy Judge eternal!
When Thou dost bid us come,
Then open wide the gates of pearl,
And call Thy servants home.
Amen.

TALL SAINTS' DAY

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1 '96

HYMN 179

Hark! the sound of holy voices,
Chanting at the crystal sea,
Alleluia, alleluia,
Alleluia, Lord, to Thee:
Multitude which none can number,
Like the stars in glory stands,
Clothed in white apparel, holding
Palms of victory in their hands,

Patriarch, and holy prophet,
Who prepared the way for Christ,
King, apostle, saint, confessor,
Martyr and evangelist;
Saintly maiden, godly matron,
Widows who have watched to prayer,
Joined in holy concert, singing
To the Lord of all, are there.

Marching with Thy cross, their banner,
They have triumphed, following
Thee, the Captain of salvation,
Thee, their Saviour and their King.
Gladly, Lord, with Thee they suffered;
Gladly, Lord, with Thee they died;
And by death to life immortal
They were born and glorified.

Now they reign in heavenly glory,
Now they walk in golden light,
N.w they drink, as from a river,
Holy bliss and infinite:
Love and peace they taste forever,
And all truth and knowledge see
In the beatific vision
Of the blessed Trinity.

Amen.

Psalm I. Beatus ver qui non abiit

Blessed is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners, and hath not sat in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law will he exercise himself day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the waterside, that will bring forth his fruit in due season.

His leaf also shall not wither; and look, whatsoever he doeth, it shall prosper.

As for the ungodly, it is not so with them; but they are like the chaff, which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgment, neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; and the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Gloria Patri.

Psalm XV. Domine, quis habitabit?

Lord, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle? or who shall rest upon thy holy hill?

Even he that leadeth an uncorrupt life, and doeth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.

He that hath used no deceit in his tongue, nor done evil to his neighbor, and hath not slandered his neighbor.

He that setteth not by himself, but is lowly in his own eyes, and maketh much of them that fear the Lord.

He that sweareth unto his neighbor, and disappointeth him not, though it were to his own hindrance.

He that hath not given his money upon usury, nor taken reward against the innocent.

Whoso doeth these things shall never fail. Gloria Patri.

Oh, what the joy and the glory must be. Those endless Sabbaths the blessed ones see!

Crown for the valiant, to weary ones

God shall be all, and in all ever blest.

What are the Monarch, His court, and

What are the peace and the joy that they own?

Oh, that the blest ones, who in it have share.

All that they feel could as fully declare!

Truly Jerusalem name we that shore, Vision of peace, that brings joy ever-

Wish and fulfilment can severed be ne'er, Nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer,

There, where no troubles distraction can bring,

We the sweet anthems of Sion shall sing;

While for Thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise,

Thy blessed people eternally raise.

There dawns no Sabbath, no Sabbath is

Those Sabbath-keepers have one ever-

One and unending is that triumph-song Which to the angels and us shall belong.

Now, in the meanwhile, with hearts raised on high,

We for that country must yearn and must sigh:

Seeking Jerusalem, dear native land, Through our long exile on Babylon's

Low before Him with our praises we

Of Whom, and in Whom, and through Whom are all:

Of Whom, the Father; and in Whom, the Son:

Through Whom, the Spirit, with Them ever One.

Amen.

HYMN. "Lord of the Harvest"

Lord of the Harvest! Thee we hail: Thine ancient promise doth not fail; The varying seasons haste their round; With goodness all our years are crowned.

When Spring doth wake the song of mirth, When Summer warms the fruitful earth, When Winter sweeps the naked plain, Or Autumn yields its ripened grain.

But chiefly when Thy liberal hand Scatters new plenty o'er the land, When sounds of music fill the air, As homeward all their treasures bear.

Lord of the Harvest! all is Thine: The rains that fall, the suns that shine, The seed once hidden in the ground, The skill that makes our fruits abound.

MY COUNTRY! 'TIS OF THEE

My country! 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died!
Land of the Pilgrim's pride!
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring!

My native country, thee—
Land of the noble free—
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills,
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees—
Sweet freedom's song.
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break—
The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God! to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King!

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming!
Whose broad Stripes and bright Stars thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the shells bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our Flag was still there.
Oh! say does that Star-spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

CHORUS: Oh! say does that Star-spangled Banner yet wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes—
What is that which the breeze o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines in the stream;
And the Star-spangled Banner, Oh! long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

CHORUS.

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
A home and a country shall leave us no more?
Their blood has wash'd out their foul footsteps' pollution!
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight, or the gloom of the grave;
And the Star-spangled Banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Chorus.

O thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
Between their lov'd home and the war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserves us a Nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: In God is our trust;
And the Star-spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.
Chorus.

They that sow in tears shall reap in joy: he that now goeth weeping shall come again rejoicing.

Ps. cxxvi. 6. 7.

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

For God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world, through Him, might be saved.

God is love,

St. John iii. 16, 17. I. John iv. 8.

AIR — Contralto.

Eye hath not seen, ear hath not heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him.

I. Cor. ii, 9.

For He hath prepared for them a city, whose builder and maker is God. Heb. xi. 10.

There remaineth, therefore, a rest for the people of God.

Therefore fear lest any come short of it.

Heb, iv. 9, 1.

CHORUS.

Treble and Alto Voices.

For thee, O dear, dear country,
Mine eyes their vigils keep;
For very love, beholding
Thy happy name, they weep.
The mention of thy glory
Is unction to the breast,
And medicine in sickness,
And love and life and rest.

Tenor and Bass Voices.

O one, O only mansion!
O Paradise of joy!
Where tears are ever banished,
And smiles have no alloy;
The Lamb is all thy splendor,
The Crucified thy praise,
His laud and benediction
Thy ransomed people raise.

Full Choir.

With jasper glow thy bulwarks,
Thy streets with emeralds blaze,
The sardius and the topaz
Unite in thee their rays;
Thine ageless walls are bonded
With amethyst unpriced;
The saints build up its fabric,
And the corner-stone is Christ.

Neale.

CHORUS.

Thine is the Kingdom, for ever and ever.

Matt. vi. 13

I have looked for Thee, that I might behold Thy power and glory.

Ps. lxiii. 3.

RECESSIONAL HYMN 520

Rejoice, ye pure in heart! Rejoice, give thanks, and sing! Your glorious banner wave on high, The cross of Christ your King!

Bright youth, and snow-crowned age, Strong men and maidens meek; Raise high your free, exultant song! God's wondrous praises speak!

With all the angel choirs,
With all the saints of earth,
Pour out the strains of joy and bliss,
True rapture, noblest mirth!

Your clear hosannas raise,
And allelulias loud!
Whilst answering echoes upward float,
Like wreaths of incense cloud,

Yes, on through life's long path!
Still chanting as ye go;
From youth to age, by night and day,
In gladness and in woe.

Still lift your standard high!
Still march in firm array!
As warriors through the darkness toi!,
Till dawns the golden day!

At last the march shall end!
The wearied ones shall rest;
The pilgrims find their father's house,
Jerusalem the blest.

Then on, ye pure in heart!
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing!
Your glorious banner wave on high,
The cross of Christ your King! Amen.

Collect for the Fourth Sunday in Advent

O Lord, raise up, we pray Thee, Thy power, and come among us, and with great might succour us; that whereas, through our sins and wickedness, we are sore let and hindered in running the race that is set before us, Thy bountiful grace and mercy may speedily help and deliver us; through the satisfaction of Thy Son our Lord, to whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

Processional Hymn 39

Lo, He comes with clouds descending,
Once for our salvation slain;
Thousand angel-hosts attending
Swell the triumph of His train:
Alleluia!
Christ, the Lord, returns to reign.

Every eye shall now behold Him,
Robed in dreadful majesty;
Those who set at naught and sold Him,
Pierced and nailed Him to the tree,
Deeply wailing,
Shall the true Messiah see.

Now redemption, long expected, See in solemn pomp appear: All His saints, by men rejected, Now shall meet Him in the air: Alleluia! See the day of God appear.

Yea, Amen; let all adore Thee,
High on Thine eternal throne;
Saviour, take the power and glory;
Claim the kingdoms for Thine own:
Alleluia!
Thou shalt reign, and Thou alone. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER AND VERSICLES

PSALM 102

Hear my prayer, O Lord: and let my crying come unto Thee.

Hide not Thy face from me in the time of my trouble: incline Thine ear unto me when I call: O hear me, and that right soon.

For my days are consumed away like smoke: and my bones are burnt up as it were a firebrand.

My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass: so that I forget to eat my bread.

For the voice of my groaning: my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

I am become like a pelican in the wilderness: and like an owl that is in the desert.

I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow: that sitteth alone upon the housetop.

Mine enemies revile me all the day long: and they that are mad upon me are sworn together against me.

For I have eaten ashes as it were bread: and mingled my drink with weeping;

And that, because of Thine indignation and wrath: for Thou hast taken me up and cast me down.

My days are gone like a shadow: and I am withered like grass.

But Thou, O Lord, shalt endure forever: and Thy remembrance throughout all generations.

Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion: for it is time that Thou have mercy upon her, yea, the time is come.

And why? Thy servants think upon her stones: and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

The heathen shall fear Thy name, O Lord: and all the kings of the earth Thy majesty;

When the Lord shall build up Sion: and when His glory shall appear;

When He turneth Him unto the prayer of the poor destitute: and despiseth not their desire.

This shall be written for those that come after: and the people which shall be born shall praise the Lord.

For He hath looked down from His sanctuary: out of the heaven did the Lord behold the earth;

That He might hear the mournings of such as are in captivity: and deliver the children appointed unto death;

That they may declare the name of the Lord in Zion: and His worship at Jerusalem;

When the people are gathered together: and the kingdoms also, to serve the Lord,

He brought down my strength in my journey: and shortened my days.

But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of mine age: as for Thy years, they endure throughout all generations.

Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of Thy hands.

They shall perish, but Thou shalt endure: they all shall wax old as doth a garment.

And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: but Thou art the same, and Thy years shall not fail.

The children of Thy servants shall continue: and their seed shall stand fast in Thy sight.

Hymn 47

Hark! the glad sound! the Saviour comes,
The Saviour promised long:
Let every heart prepare a throne,
And every voice a song.

He comes, the prisoners to release, In Satan's bondage held: The gates of brass before him burst, The iron fetters yield. He comes, from thickest films of vice To clear the mental ray, And on the eyes oppressed with night To pour celestial day,

He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure:
And with the treasures of His grace
To enrich the humble poor.

Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace, Thy welcome shall proclaim: And heaven's eternal arches ring With Thy beloved Name. Amen.

"BLESSED ARE THEY WHO WATCH"

CHORUS—"Blessed are they"

Blessed are they whom the Lord when He cometh shall find watching.

They shall enter into Life Eternal, they shall be His people and God Himself shall be with them, and shall be their God.

Hymn 186

(To be sung by the choir and congregation)

Ye servants of the Lord, Each in your office, wait, Observant of His heavenly word, And watchful at His gate.

Let all your lamps be bright,
And trim the golden flame;
Gird up your loins as in His sight,
For awful is His Name.

Watch! 'tis your Lord's command, And while we speak He's near; Mark the first signal of His hand, And ready all appear.

Oh, happy servant he
In such a posture found;
He shall his Lord with rapture see,
And be with honor crowned. Amen.

SOLO-SOPRANO

"Sorrow not for those that sleep"

Sorrow not for those that sleep, even as others which have no hope.

If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him.

CHORUS—"Behold the hour cometh"

Behold the hour cometh when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God, and they that hear shall

For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the Archangel, and the trump of God.

Awake and sing, ye that sleep in the dust. Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise; and the earth shall cast out the dead.

HYMN 43

(To be sung by the choir and congregation)

Rejoice, rejoice, believers!
And let your lights appear;
The evening is advancing,
The darker night is near.
The Bridegroom is arising,
And soon He will draw nigh;
Up! pray and watch, and wrestle!
At midnight comes the cry.

See that your lamps are burning;
Replenish them with oil;
Look now for your salvation,
The end of sin and toil.
The watchers on the mountain
Proclaim the Bridegroom near,
Go meet Him as He cometh,
With alleluias clear,

O wise and holy virgins,
Now raise your voices higher,
Until in songs of triumph
Ye meet the angel choir.
The marriage-feast is waiting,
The gates wide open stand;
Up, up, ye heirs of glory!
The Bridegroom is at hand.

Our hope and expectation,
O Jesu, now appear;
Arise, Thou Sun so longed for,
O'er this benighted sphere!
With hearts and hands uplifted,
We plead, O Lord, to see
The day of earth's redemption,
And ever be with Thee. Amen.

CHORUS—"The world passeth away"

The world passeth away and the lust thereof. But he that doeth the will of the Lord abideth forever.

SOLO—SOPRANO AND CHORUS

"I will give unto Him"

I will give unto him that is athirst, of the fountain of the Water of Life freely; he that overcometh shall inherit all things. I will be his God, and he shall be My son.

Chorus-" Now is come salvation"

Now is come salvation, and strength, and the Kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ.

O God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come, Our shelter from the stormy blast And our eternal home, Before the hills in order stood, Or earth received her frame, From everlasting Thou art God. To endless years the same.

RECESSIONAL HYMN 37

Great God, what do I see and hear!
The end of things created!
The Judge of mankind doth appear
On clouds of glory seated!
The trumpet sounds; the graves restore
The dead which they contained before;
Prepare, my soul, to meet Him!

The dead in Christ shall first arise
At the last trumpet's sounding,
Caught up to meet Him in the skies,
With joy their Lord surrounding:
No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
His presence sheds eternal day
On those prepared to meet Him.

But sinners, filled with guilty fears,
Behold His wrath prevailing;
For they shall rise and find their tears
And sighs are unavailing:
The day of grace is past and gone;
Trembling, they stand before the throne,
All unprepared to meet Him.

Great God, to Thee my spirit clings,
Thy boundless love declaring;
One wondrous sight my comfort brings,
The Judge my nature wearing.
Beneath His cross I view the day
When heaven and earth shall pass away,
And thus prepare to meet Him. Amen

Glorious things of thee are spoken, Sion, city of our God; He, whose word cannot be broken, Formed thee for His own abode: On the Rock of Ages founded, What can shake thy sure repose? With salvation's walls surrounded, Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

See, the streams of living waters
Springing from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove.
Who can faint, when such a river
Ever will their thirst assuage?
Grace which, like the Lord, the giver,
Never fails from age to age.

Round each habitation hovering,
See the clouds and fire appear
For a glory and a covering,
Showing that the Lord is near.
Thus deriving from their banner,
Light by night and shade by day,
Safe they feed upon the manna,
Which He gives them when they pray.

Blest inhabitants of Sion,
Washed in the Redeemer's blood!
Jesus, Whom their souls rely on,
Makes them kings and priests to God.
'Tis His love His people raises
Over self to reign as kings:
And as priests His solemn praises
Each for a thank-offering brings.

Amen.

Anthem—"The Lord is my Shepherd" . . Franz Schubert

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to rest in green pastures; He leadeth me beside still waters. He giveth peace unto my soul; He leadeth me in paths of goodness for His Name's sake. Yea though I walk thro' Death's dark vale of shadows no evil will I fear: for Thou art still with me. Thy rod and staff they comfort me. Thou preparest here a table for me, in presence of mine enemies; mine head with oil Thou annointest; my cup runneth over. Yea surely peace and mercy all my life shall follow me: and I will dwell with God for ever more.

Hear my prayer, O God, incline Thine ear! Thyself from my petition do not hide. Take heed to me! Hear how in prayer I mourn to Thee. Without Thee all is dark, I have no guide. The enemy shouteth, the godless come fast! Iniquity, hatred, upon me they cast! The wicked oppress me, ah! where shall I fly? Perplexed and bewildered, O God, hear my cry.

My heart is sorely pained within my breast, my soul with deathly terror is oppressed; trembling and fearfulness upon me fall. With horror overwhelm'd, Lord, hear me call.

O for the wings, for the wings of a dove! Far away would I rove; in the wilderness build me a nest, and remain there forever at rest.

On our way rejoicing,
As we homeward move,
Hearken to our praises,
O Thou God of love!
Is there grief or sadness?
Thine it cannot be!
Is our sky beclouded?
Clouds are not from Thee!

On our way rejoicing,
As we homeward move,
Hearken to our praises,
O Thou God of love!

If with honest-hearted
Love for God and man,

On our way rejoicing
Gladly let us go;
Conquered hath our leader!
Vanquished is our foe!
Christ without, our safety;
Christ within, our joy!
Who, if we be faithful,
Can our hope destroy?
On our way rejoicing, etc.

Unto God the Father
Joyful songs we sing;
Unto God the Saviour
Thankful hearts we bring;

HYMN 521-"Through the Night of Doubt and Sorrow"

THROUGH the night of doubt and sorrow
Onward goes the pilgrim band,
Singing songs of expectation,
Marching to the promised land.
Clear before us through the darkness
Gleams and burns the guiding light;
Brother clasps the hand of brother,
Stepping fearless through the night.

One, the light of God's own presence, O'er His ransomed people shed, Chasing far the gloom and terror, Brightening all the path we tread; One, the object of our journey, One, the faith which never tires, One, the earnest looking forward, One, the hope our God inspires.

One, the strain the lips of thousands
Lift as from the heart of one;
One the conflict, one the peril,
One, the march in God begun:
One, the gladness of rejoicing
On the far eternal shore,
Where the One Almighty Father
Reigns in love for evermore.

Onward therefore, pilgrim brothers!
Onward, with the Cross our aid!
Bear its shame, and fight its battle,
Till we rest beneath its shade!
Soon shall come the great awaking;
Soon the rending of the tomb;
Then, the scattering of all shadows,
And the end of toil and gloom! Amen.

HYMN 176-"For all the Saints, Who from Their Labors Rest"

POR all the saints, who from their labors rest, Who Thee by faith before the world confessed, Thy name, O Jesu, be forever blest.

Alleluia.

Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress, and their Might: Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight; Thou, in the darkness drear, the one true light.

Alleluia.

Oh, may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold, Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old, And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold.

Alleluia.

O blest communion, fellowship divine! We feebly struggle, they in glory shine; Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.

Alleluia.

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long, Steals on the ear the distant triumph song, And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.

Alleluia.

The golden evening brightens in the west; Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest; Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest.

Alleluia.

But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day; The saints triumphant rise in bright array; The King of glory passes on his way.

We march, we march to victory! With the cross of the Lord before us, With His loving eye looking down from the sky, And His holy arm spread o'er us.

We come in the might of the Lord of light, In reverent train to meet Him; And we put to flight the armies of night, That the sons of the day may greet Him. We march, we march, etc.

Our sword is the Spirit of God on high, Our helmet is His salvation, Our banner, the Cross of Calvary, Our watchword, the Incarnation. We march, we march, etc.

And the choir of angels with song awaits Our march to the golden Sion; For our Captain has broken the brazen gates, And burst the bars of iron. We march, we march, etc.

Then onward we march, our arms to prove, With the banner of Christ before us, With His eye of love looking down from above, And His holy arm spread o'er us.

We march, we march to victory! With the cross of the Lord before us, With His loving eye looking down from the sky, And His holy arm spread o'er us.

Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER AND VERSICLES

PROPER PSALMS FOR THE EVENING OF ASCENSION DAY 24, 47, 108

PSALM 24

The earth is the Lord's, and all that therein is: the compass of the world, and they that even of them that seek thy face, O Jacob. dwell therein.

For he hath founded it upon the seas: and prepared it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord : or who shall rise up in his holy place?

Even he that hath clean hands, and a pure heart : and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neighbor.

He shall receive the blessing from the Lord: and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek him:

Lift your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory: It is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates: and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory: Even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Gloria Patri.

PSALM 47

O clap your hands together, all ye people : O sing unto God with the voice of melody. For the Lord is high, and to be feared: he is the great King upon all the earth.

He shall subdue the people under us: and the nations under our feet.

He shall choose out an heritage for us : even the worship of Jacob, whom he loved.

God is gone up with a merry noise: and the Lord with the sound of the trump.

O sing praises, sing praises unto our God: O sing praises, sing praises unto our King.

For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon his holy seat.

The princes of the people are joined unto the people of the God of Abraham: for God, which is very high exalted, doth defend the earth, as it were with a shield.

Gloria Patri.

PSALM 108

O God, my heart is ready, my heart is ready: I will sing, and give praise with the best member that I have.

Awake, thou lute and harp: I myself will awake right early.

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

For thy mercy is greater than the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

Set up thyself, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth; That thy beloved may be delivered: let thy right hand save them, and hear thou me. God hath spoken in his holiness: I will rejoice therefore, and divide Sichem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

Gilead is mine, and Manasses is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of my head;

Judah is my lawgiver; Moab is my wash pot: over Edom will I cast out my shoe; upon Philistia will I triumph.

Who will lead me into the strong city: and who will bring me into Edom?

Hast thou not forsaken us, O God: and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

O help us against the enemy: for vain is the help of man.

Through God we shall do great acts: and it is he that shall tread down our enemies.

Gloria Patri.

FIRST LESSON-Daniel 7: 9-15

MAGNIFICAT

My soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his hand-maiden.

For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name. And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.

He hath showed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel: as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed forever.

Gloria Patri.

SECOND LESSON-Ephesians 4: 1-17

NUNC DIMITTIS

Lord, now lettest thou Thy servant depart in peace: according to Thy word.

For mine eyes hath seen: Thy salvation, Which Thou hast prepared: before the face of all people.

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of Thy people Israel. Gloria Patri.

CREED, COLLECTS, ETC.

HYMN 374

Crown Him with many crowns. The Lamb upon His throne; Hark I how the heavenly anthem drowns All music but its own: Awake, my soul, and sing Of Him who died for thee, And hail Him as thy matchless King Through all eternity.

Crown Him the Son of God Before the worlds began, And ye who tread where He hath trod, Crown Him the Son of Man; Who every grief hath known That wrings the human breast, And takes and bears them for His own, That all in Him may rest.

Crown Him the Lord of Life, Who triumphed o'er the grave, And rose victorious in the strife For those He came to save; His glories now we sing Who died and rose on high, Who died, eternal life to bring, And lived that death may die.

Crown Him of lords the Lord, Who over all doth reign, Who once on earth the Incarnate Word, For ransomed sinners slain, Now lives in realms of light, Where saints with angels sing Their songs before Him day and night, Their God, Redeemer, King.

Crown Him the Lord of Heaven, Enthroned in worlds above; Crown Him the King, to Whom is given The wondrous name of Love. Crown Him with many crowns, As thrones before Him fall, Crown Him, ye kings, with many crowns, For He is King of all.

Amen.

First Annual Founder's Day

CHURCH OF THE HOLY APOSTLES

TWENTY-FIRST AND CHRISTIAN STREETS

October 29th., 1922

The Purpose of the Day

On October 28th., 1839, Mr. George C. Thomas was born. On April 21st., 1909, he entered into life eternal. In the years that lay between those dates he made for himself a name and place in the life of the Church such as no other layman has occupied. Under God he was the founder and upbuilder of this parish. Because of that, and because his life so well exemplifies the high qualities of Christian manhood, it is purposed through the years ahead to set apart the Sunday nearest his natal anniversary for special religious services and addresses commemorative of him. So shall the old keep fresh their memories and the youth be taught the goodlines of their heritage. So shall we all learn ever anew to seek "the highway of the upright," for God shall "go with them that walk therein."

A Symposium

"Like the Master Whom he loved, and in Whose footsteps he walked, Mr. Thomas went about doing good. Cultured and broadminded, of wonderful business capacity and spotless integrity, modest and unassuming, he was an illustrious example of Christian manhood."

- The Vestry of the Church of the Holy A postles

"Everything he did was done with the single-minded purpose of rendering to his Master the best he could give; his was the highest sense of stewardship which brought the largest increase to the talents which had been committed to his charge."

-The Diocese of Pennsulvania.

"It has never been my fortune to meet a man so fully imbued with a realization of setting a right and proper example in all things, nor one who so illustrates in his own life its power. He sought no supremacy other than the supremacy of distinguished service. He sought none other, but gained much more, including the supremacy of spiritual leadership and the supremacy of personal devotion unequalled—nay, unapproached."—Bishop Thomas.

"His life and work were sermons. I know of no better or more helpful American sermons. God be humbly thanked for the preacher whom He sent to us and for the sermons which he preached."—Bishon Tuttle. "There was no more precious life in the Church than his, for he gave not money only, large and lavish as his gifts were, but the greater gift of himself."—Bishop Doane.

"He was loved and honored as few men are honored and loved, and that not merely because he was lavish in his giving, but because he so unreservedly gave that rarest of all gifts—himself. That is God's own way."

-Dr. Huntington.

"He was a rare and gifted soul, and everybody who knew him not only believed in and admired him, but loved him."—Bishop Greer.

"It is not every man who has his strong and common sense qualities, who can also win affection."—Bishop Lawrence.

"George Clifford Thomas! What an inspiration there is in that name! What wonderful and sterling example of Christian manhood and generosity."—Bishop Garland.

"He had two great interests in the Church, interests so noble that it is hardly possible to conceive of any more so. He loved little children, and he saw in child-life the possibilities of the future. And then he had a world vision—a world vision that compelled him to throw his interests far afield, and to touch with his sympathy the uttermost parts of the earth."—Bishop Breat.

CORPORATE CELEBRATION OF THE HOLY COMMUNION, 10.30 A.M.
Processional Hymn
I was glad when they said unto me.  We will go into the house of the Lord. Our feet shall stand in thy gates, O pray for the peace of Jerusalem. They shall prosper that love thee. Peace be within thy walls and plenteousness within thy palaces.
For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will wish thee prosperity.
HYMN FOR JUNIOR CHOIR 550 SERMON HYMN 519 SERMON BY THE RT. REV. THOMAS J. GARLAND, D. D., Bishop Suffragan of Pennsylvania Offertory Anthem—"Send out Thy Light and Thy Truth"
Send out thy light and thy truth, let them lead me. And let them bring me to thy holy hill. O God, then will I go unto thy altar. O Lord, our God! praise thee, O Lord, our God! praise thee, O Lord, our God with the stree, O Lord, our God with the stree, O Lord, our God. Thou wilt save thine anointed. They are brought down and fallen. Still trust the lovingkindness of the God of thy strength:
